STEAMER SEMINOLE SINKS IN BAY

CORCORAN CAPSIZED IN COLLISION

Passengers of Both Vessels Are Saved by Other Craft on the Bay

Vessels Strike During a Heavy Fog; Corcoran Carried Gold Bullion

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Riding the keel of the capsized river freighter Corcoran, two firemen were picked up this afternoon by the Fort Point life-saving crew as the derelict hulk was being swept out to sea through the Golden Gate on a strong ebb tide.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The Southern Pacific Company's river steamer Seminole, loaded with about sixty passengers bound for Sacramento and way points, was run down and sunk by the freight steamer Corcoran in a dense fog off Angel island shortly before 9 o'clock this morning.

The crew and passengers of both vessels were saved, and what might have been a serious panic was prevented by the coolness displayed by the captains, mates and sailors concerned.

The capsized hulk of the Seminole was sighted drifting out to sea through the Golden Gate on ebb tide by the crew of the Fort Point Life-Saving Station. The crew immediately put out in a launch.

The sudden crashing of the timbers of the Seminole and the flooding of the main room with water just twenty minutes after the boat had left her docks at Pacific street this morning caused the passengers to dash across the deck and the eighteen or twenty women on board, screamed.

All that could be seen was the huge hulk of a steamer backing away from the wreck that had been caused and vainly listing to starboard. Captain Ben Riddout of the Seminole immediately sounded a signal for all hands, and sailors and stewards as well as the officers were kept busy for a few moments quieting the passengers while the ship's whistle sounded the distress signal. During the scrambling on decks which followed, a woman with a babe in her arms attempted to jump overboard but was rescued by Steward E. J. Hawkins, who forced her to the cabin and locked the door.

TUGS TO RESCUE.

Meantime the alarm sirens of both the Seminole and the Corcoran had attracted the tug Angel island and Maryland, as well as the steamer Napa Valley which plies between this city and Vallejo. The Napa Valley was bound toward San Francisco, and believing that there was a chance to save the Seminole, threw out a line to her and began to pull her toward the flats on Angel island. The passengers had been placed in the various boats and were safe and an effort was being made to prevent the vessel from sinking. As the Napa Valley proceeded, however, it was found that the attempt was useless and finally the line was cast off as the Seminole had sunk to her decks and soon disappeared beneath the waves. The last man to leave the boat was Captain Riddout, who stood manfully at his post and made no attempt to leave his vessel until it was seen that it was impossible to save her and when he was in imminent danger of being drawn down by the suction caused by her sinking.

TAFT WAITS WANTON KILLING

Madero or Rebels Must Turn On Americans Before President Will Order Intervention

Diaz Says Foreigners Need Not Fear Unless He Is Attacked From Their Quarter

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—President Taft declared to close advisers today that only one thing could force him to ask Congress to intervene in Mexico. If the Madero or Diaz forces should turn upon Americans merely because they are Americans or foreigners, Taft let it be known that he would rush a special message to Congress in thirty minutes' time.

He does not regard the killing of a few Americans in the course of the battle as a cause for war, but looks upon such casualties as unavoidable and believes that the proper authorities should be held liable for damages. If, however, the President should hear that Americans were being wantonly killed and found Congress taking its week-end recess, his confidants declared today he would not hesitate to send an expeditionary force from the battleships at Vera Cruz and Tampico.

Five thousand sailors and marines could be landed from them in a few hours and started for Mexico City. International law recognizes the right of a government to send such an expeditionary force to guard its own citizens when they need protection.

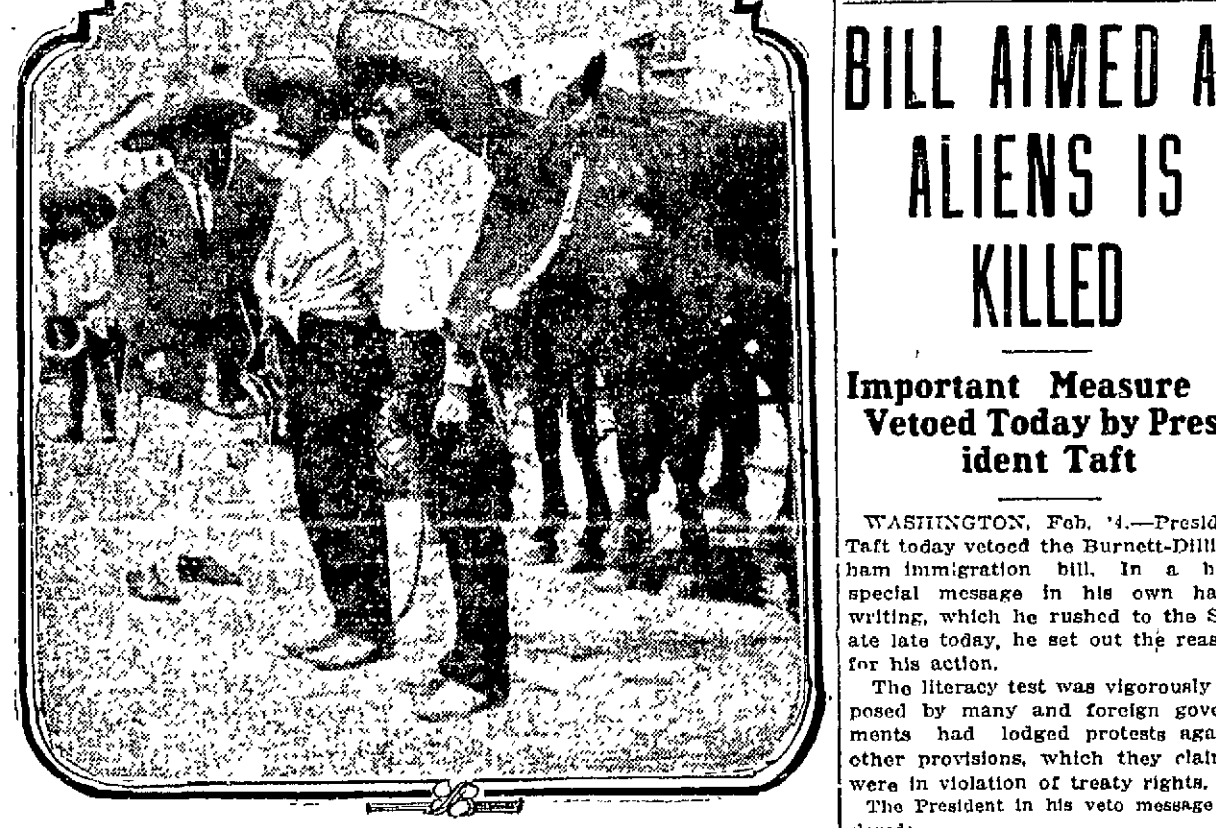

AS LEGATION GUARD. The sailors and marines would be sent to Mexico City as the "legation guard." This was the method employed during the Boxer uprising in China and more recently on the border. President Taft met the cabinet at the usual semi-weekly session and the Mexican situation was generally discussed. It was understood that the cabinet is in complete accord with the President's attitude as it was expressed in his talks with callers today.

Overnight dispatches from Ambassador Wilson say Americans are not in haste to flee the danger zone in Mexico City, even when they have the opportunity. Foreigners seem determined to remain to watch the fighting, although Wilson reports at every interval between engagements he has sent motors through the city to bring all non-combatants into the neighborhood of the American embassy.

BANKING IS PARALYZED. Banking is paralyzed and the ambassador has been unable to draw on the State Department for the $10,000 authorized yesterday for use in succoring Americans and sending them out of the city. The State Department authorized him today to give the guarantee of the government for any Americans who incurred.

Americans who petitioned General Felix Diaz have received a reply from the rebel leader that they need not fear his firing so long as his forces are not attacked from the direction of the residential section occupied by the American colony. Officers commanding 400 rural guards who took up a position before the German legation yesterday are reported to have told the German minister they did not know which cause they served. With an air of indifference they added that their colonel was having an interview with Diaz. No sympathetic disturbances are reported in Northern Sonora and although it is impossible to get news out of Chihuahua City.

Police Make Arrests Amid Revolver Fire

Three Alleged Auto Bandits Lodged in Jail After Battle.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—After a battle during which their faces were singed with powder and their uniforms perforated by revolver bullets, three policemen managed today to arrest three members of a band of five alleged automobile bandits. The two others, one of them a woman, were betrayed by the prisoners, according to the police, and are now being sought.

The three prisoners gave the names of Bert Hamilton, chauffeur; George Johnson and Frank Smith. When arrested they shot at the two policemen, but surrendered under the hot return fire of the officers. The prisoners are said to have used an automobile to aid them in a number of robberies and hold-ups.

Retired Naval Man Dies at Portsmouth

Rear-Admiral M. L. Johnson, U. S. N., Passes Away; Was Pioneer.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 14.—Rear-Admiral Mortimer L. Johnson, U. S. N., retired, died at his home here today. He was born at Nahant, Mass. in 1842, and entered the navy in 1859, being retired in 1904.

Declares Husband Seized Her by Throat

Such Treatment Gross Violation of Contract, She Maintains.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Alleging that her husband violated a contract when he seized her by the throat and attempted to choke her, Mrs. Otilie Boyden seeks damages in the sum of $3000 from Boyden in a suit which was on file in the Superior Court today. The alleged contract provided that Boyden should pay his wife $3000 for any abuse he might inflict upon her after marriage. The terms of the contract were violated nine days later, according to the plaintiff.

Bodyguard for Wilson Is Doubled

Four Secret Service Men Now Keep Watch Over the President-elect.

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 14.—The guard of secret service men with President-elect Wilson was doubled today. Two operatives have been with the Governor constantly since election day. The reason for the sudden increase was not divulged. But the guard of four now permits a watch over the President-elect throughout the 14 hours of the day. BILL AIMED AT ALIENS IS KILLED

Important Measure Is Vetoed Today by President Taft

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—President Taft today vetoed the Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill. In a brief special message in his own handwriting, which he rushed to the Senate late today, he set out the reasons for his action.

The literacy test was vigorously opposed by many and foreign governments had lodged protests against other provisions, which they claimed were in violation of treaty rights.

The President in his veto message declared: "I do this with great reluctance. The bill contains many valuable amendments to the present immigration law which would insure greater certainty in excluding undesirable immigrants. The bill received strong support in both Houses and was recommended by an able commission after an extended investigation and carefully drawn conclusions."

"But I cannot make up my mind to sign a bill which in its chief provision violates a principle that was in my opinion to be upheld in dealing with our immigration. I refer to the literacy test. For the reasons stated in Secretary Nague's letter to me, I cannot approve that test. The secretary's letter accompanies this."

Senator Lodge announced after the reading of the President's message that an attempt would be made to pass the bill over Taft's veto on Monday, immediately after the vote on the Connecticut River dam bill. He predicted it would be passed. House leaders conferred over the prospect of taking like action.

Pension was recommended by Fire Chief N. A. Bail and will go into effect April 1 on a $57.50 a month half-pay basis. Scribner was a member of Engine Company 16.

MEXICO CITY AGAIN SWEEPED BY SHELLS; SCORES ARE KILLED

Convent Destroyed and Many of Its Occupants Slain; Diaz Seeks U. S. Recognition Starving Refugees, Driven From Homes, Pray for Intervention; Wilson Says Americans Hesitate to Flee

BULLETIN. WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The Belgian and Cuban ministers in Mexico City have been driven from their embassies by the artillery fire. The news reached here in a brief dispatch from Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson.

BULLETIN. MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—The private house of President Madero, situated at the corner of Liverpool and Berlin streets was burning at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BULLETIN. MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—President Madero has placed cannon on the American embassy and is preparing to draw the rebel fire in that direction.

BULLETIN. MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—The federal government gave a general order to cease firing at 2:30. General Jose Maria de la Vega, commanding the Maderista forces to the east of the rebel position, says that the government troops have been unable to advance.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—With scores slain in the streets, buildings wrecked and the entire city swept by firing from federal and rebel batteries, the sixth day of fighting in the streets of the Mexican capital brought no diminution in the fierceness of battle. A convent in the heart of the city was wrecked early in today's fighting and a number of occupants killed.

Federal engineers this morning began placing a series of mines charged with dynamite beneath certain houses between the national palace and the arsenal. The explosion of these is to clear a passage of four blocks long through which the artillerymen will direct mortar fire against Diaz and his army in their positions about the arsenal. Residents were warned during the night to evacuate their homes. All escaped, taking nothing but their personal belongings.

The appearance of federal troops on the streets led to the rumor that many of Madero's men were deserting his ranks. At an early hour Felix Diaz gave notice to non-combatants in the vicinity that he intended to increase the fury of his bombardment.

CRUISER SPEEDS TO PROTECT AMERICANS

Denver Turns Back Into Port of Acapulco; Foreigners in Danger

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Because of intense anti-American feeling at Acapulco, Mexico, the cruiser Denver has been turned back into that port to protect Americans and other foreigners until the center South Dakota puts into that port Sunday.

Many acts of violence have been committed at Acapulco against Americans. They culminated in a street attack on two officers of the cruiser Denver before her departure for Acapulco, Salvador, Wednesday. These demonstrations of hostility, endangering the lives of hundreds of Americans, so thoroughly alarmed officials here that today they ordered the Denver by wireless to return. In addition to the regular American colony in Acapulco, American ranchers and miners have been forced to flee into the city by rebel depredations in the country side.

PRAY FOR END OF FIGHT. The hundreds of thousands of terror-stricken non-combatants have grown indifferent as to who wins, but all in the city uttered a prayer this morning that one side or the other might bring to a termination the terrible artillery duel which has wrecked the city and caused loss of life and misery.

Grim determination was expressed today by both sides. An ultimatum from Madero to the rebels was answered with shells, and Diaz later asserted in an official communication to the United States ambassador that he was in control of the city.

DIAZ REQUEST REFUSED. Diaz asked for recognition as a beligerent by the United States government in a formal note to Ambassador Wilson, stating he was in complete control of the city.

Ambassador Wilson replied promptly to the rebel leader, explaining that while Diaz' statement might be correct, his own eye was untrained in military affairs and he was not able to see the situation as Diaz explained it. He added that he was assured by President Madero that the government remained in control.

DIAZ HAS ADVANTAGE. Expert observers declared that Diaz had the advantage of position in some respects, but that the federal commander had an immense superiority in numbers and could count on practically unlimited ammunition and supplies. Diaz is also well provided with ammunition for the present.

President Madero received last night more reinforcements. Further reinforcements were expected today. General Bianquist was officially reported to have asked permission from the government of the United States to command in command of his force at (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Toluca and come to the capital with a portion of his men.

General Rivera is on the way from the state of Oaxaca with 800 federal soldiers.

The federal troops were posted during the night at points considered of strategic importance and General Huerta declared this morning that the effort to rush the rebel lines, which he had promised for yesterday, would be forthcoming today.

BATTLE OPENS EARLY.

The rebels opened the battle today at a quarter to 6, when they started firing in the direction of the federal concentration points. It had been expected that the federals would attack first.

President Madero sent an ultimatum to Felix Diaz this morning demanding his surrender, and the reply came in the shape of a number of cannonballs from the insurgents' biggest guns.

By 7 o'clock the firing had rolled into a steady fusillade. All around the arsenal the flash of field guns and the quick-thrums was incessant. Federal officials declared that their men were preparing to make a forward movement on the rebel lines.

FEDERAL REPLY IS VIGOROUS.

The first salvo from the rebel lines was followed quickly by a series of others in rapid succession. Then the machine guns and rifles began their whirl and patter, the fire being concentrated where government troops were gathering. The federal guns did not delay in making vigorous reply.

A constant stream of refugees, most of them Mexican citizens, was observed carrying bundles and scurrying toward the suburbs from the densely populated district between the arsenal and the National Palace as soon as the firing became intense.

Two federal batteries of five guns each posted near the British legation poured a constant stream of shells on to the arsenal. Another federal battery posted on San Juan de Letran joined in.

PREFER TO DIE AT POSTS.

Diaz made preparations to contest every inch of the advance of the government troops, he indicated, he would do in his reply to the President's ultimatum. He told the government that his followers preferred to die at their posts rather than surrender. They would not ask clemency, he said, after 8 o'clock a constant stream of five blocks beyond the National Palace was wrecked by a shell from a rebel gun and a number of its inmates were killed.

In many of the churches special services were held by the clergy for the restoration of peace to the capital. Thousands of refugees knelt in the old edifices and joined in the prayers, at the same time trusting not a little to the heavy walls for protection against flying projectiles.

REBELS TURN FIRE.

At about 9 o'clock the rebel gunners turned their attack away from the National Palace and on to the federal batteries near the British legation, from which the government gunners were pounding them unmercifully.

Many sharp-shooters from the rebel artillery fell around the cable office, the American Club and other buildings in that vicinity. Others reached their mark, the National Palace, at the end of the line.

The government was reported during the morning to be preparing to raze with dynamite four solid blocks consisting mostly of residences just east of the rebel position between the arsenal and the National Palace to obtain a better sweep for the heavy fire from the federal artillery.

The fire from the rebel batteries kept up very rapidly throughout the morning, but at about 10 o'clock a decrease was noticed in that from the government artillery.

FEDERAL TROOPS DESERT.

About noon some straggling bands of federal soldiers passed the United States embassy. It was believed they were deserters and the impression grew that the government troops were refusing to continue fighting.

Just before noon the White Cross Society endeavored to arrange a truce for two hours in order to collect the dead and wounded. The federal fire became less intense and the rebel artillery also slackened.

REBELS INCREASE FIRE.

Felix Diaz late in the morning issued a notice that he was about to increase the fury of his bombardment of the National Palace. He warned non-combatants to withdraw from the danger zone.

More persistent firing on the part of the rebels began.

Three different engagements in the streets were precipitated by the ebbing in of the federal force toward the rebel positions. In each of them both sides played safe after a sharp exchange of small arm fire and a vicious play of machine guns.

FIND REFUGE IN CHURCHES.

Long before daylight a steady stream of refugees, for the most part belonging to the lower classes, but also composing many of the better elements, poured out of the densely populated district in the neighborhood of the rebel lines.

Orders had been given to the government troops not to oppose the evacuation of the district by these non-combatants. Great crowds of them filled the streets, staggering under the weight of bundles of bedding and other personal effects. Sick people were carried away on the shoulders of their relatives. Aged women tottered feebly along, causing their frightened relatives much delay in their panic-stricken flight.

Many of these people had nowhere to go and were absolutely destitute. Most of them found refuge in churches.

Evidence of life on the streets, except that displayed by the military, was lacking. Non-combatants huddled together in their refuges, although some occasionally ran the gauntlet of the danger zone and were welcomed by those wishing to learn about developments in other quarters.

CROSS STREETS ON RUN.

Few people, however, took these risks, and when they did they crossed the open streets on the run. Even the federal troops, within their own region of control, ran while crossing the streets, since the rebel outposts and sharpshooters were scattered far beyond the rebel lines and concealed on the roof tops and made a movement perilous.

The congestion of the last few days at the United States embassy was relieved today by locating some of the American refugees in the homes of others living near. Many Americans have slept on blankets in unfurnished houses rented by the embassy.

The American guard has continued on duty at the embassy, those composing it patrolling without rifles. Americans residents here are formulating a protest against the plan of mediation suggested by John Barrett as being inadequate.

CANNON ON EMBASSY.

United States Ambassador Wilson was twice requested by Felix Diaz, the Mexican foreign minister, today to move the American embassy to another location. The ambassador refused to consider the suggestion.

The object of the Mexican government's desire to move the embassy is to permit the federal troops to place their cannon in a position which would draw the rebel fire from the arsenal directly in line with the embassy. A great number of residences occupied by American citizens would thus be endangered.

Despite the refusal of the ambassador to leave, it is understood that federal batteries are being placed there.

No Part of City Safe From Shells

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 14.—Without decisive advantage to either the government or the rebel forces, the fifth day of fighting in the capital ended at after sundown.

President Madero himself had stated two hours earlier that General Huerta would renew his efforts for the subjugation of Diaz immediately, and it was authoritatively stated that the government forces were planning to take the rebel positions by assault between 6 and 7 o'clock, but the day's operations came to an end with the federals only feebly on the aggressive.

It was another day of terror for hundreds of thousands of non-combatants. These included large numbers of foreigners who could find no part of the city a spot free from danger.

Shells raked the principal streets of the capital and tore their way into private homes and business buildings as well as through the public structures for which they were intended.

Bullets from machine guns and rifles penetrated all corners, finding lodgment in buildings, even in the remote sections, unofficially, but tacitly designated yesterday as the neutral zone.

FILE FROM LEGATIONS.

The Cuban and Belgian legations were rendered untenable, the occupants seeking refuge elsewhere. The French consulate suffered a fate similar to that of the American consulate several days ago, the consul transferring his office to his country's legation.

Both government and rebels insist that they will fight to a finish. In view of this declaration, the Cuban minister asked his government last night for authorization to charter special trains to remove from the capital today such Cubans as wish to leave. He proposed to land them at Vera Cruz and there place them aboard a ship flying the Spanish flag, if one is in port, otherwise on an American warship. It was said last night that the action of the Cuban minister may be followed by other diplomats.

The accustomed sparkle of the president's eye was no so evident late in the afternoon when he talked to the correspondent of the Associated Press. He still protested his optimism, but there was lacking that jaunty air of confidence which has characterized him since the day of his inauguration.

CITES HUMANITARIANISM.

The president declared that he had between 5000 and 6000 soldiers and could reduce Diaz gradually but hesitated to do so because of humanitarian motives.

He denied that there was sympathetic trouble except at Puebla, where he admitted a slight difficulty, but asserted that this had been settled. The government telegraph wire still is silent on the news throughout the republic, but there has reached here through various sources information, which appears credible, to the effect that the Diaz movement has found considerable favor in many sections.

One report says that the city of Puebla openly has proclaimed him provisional president. In the state of Puebla, Francisco Pradilla, formerly with Orozco, is said to be at the head of a body of men on the way to Mexico City to support Diaz.

An army officer of a loyal division arrived last night from Vera Cruz. He admitted that in great stretches of the country between here and the gulf the people openly were crying "vivas" for Diaz, and that he himself had been subjected to much embarrassment because of his loyalty.

The diplomatic representatives said last night that they had no intention of making further representations to the Mexican government looking to a settlement. Such action they regarded as futile.

American Woman Victim of Shell

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—At the home of Mrs. Kate Dreyfus it was said today that it was Mrs. C. Griffiths, mother of Percy Griffiths, and not Griffiths' wife, who was killed in Mexico City.

Mrs. Kate Dreyfus is Mrs. Percy Griffiths' mother. Griffiths, an electrical engineer, went to Mexico City from New York several years ago with his wife and mother. The mother, according to a dispatch sent to Mrs. Kate Dreyfus today, was killed by a shell in front of the American Club.

Americans Hated in Land of Mexicans

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Griffiths, one of the victims of the fighting in Mexico City, was a relative of Philip M. Dreyfus, an electrical engineer of this city.

"Griffiths has been ready to flee the capital and come back to America at a moment's notice ever since the downfall of the old Diaz regime," said Dreyfus today.

The tone of his letters has shown that he has been in a state of constant alarm, as have most of the other Americans living in the Mexican capital.

"The Americans have doubted Madero's ability of conducting the government from the first. They never have had confidence in him—not even when conditions appeared so rosy as at the outset of his administration."

"My sister-in-law frequently has made mention of the dangers of life for the Americans in Mexico City. She has written several times of the lack of protection accorded Americans under the Madero regime. It has been unsafe for an American woman to venture out in the streets of Mexico City alone for the last two years."

Dreyfus says that Griffiths, with most of the other Americans in the capital, have been expecting intervention by the United States for a long time. Most of the citizens of this country would have left Mexico at the first official intimation of intervention.

"The Americans were ready for such an exodus and there would have been no trouble in persuading them to act," Griffiths' letters and those of his wife have indicated that feeling has been especially hostile to Americans for the last two years. No doubt other foreigners have been mistreated, but the Mexican authorities have shown a marked dislike to Americans. This is owing to the fear of intervention and the belief of the Mexicans that the United States would interfere sooner or later."

Rebel Band Takes Tamaulipas Capital

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 14.—Reports received last night at Matamoros, Mexico, state that Victoria, capital of the state of Tamaulipas, has been captured by a rebel band led by Major Refugio Trevino, nephew of General Trevino, commander-in-chief of the federal troops in northern Mexico. The dispatch did not indicate that resistance was offered.

Victoria, a town of about 17,000 inhabitants, is the capital of the state of Tamaulipas and is about 175 miles southeast of Monterrey, on a branch of the National Railway which extends from Monterrey to the port of Tampico. Train service on the direct line of the National Railway from Monterrey to Mexico City will be discontinued today and it is planned to use this branch as part of a circuitous route over which to maintain railroad communication with the city of Mexico.

Monterrey is reported quiet. According to a passenger, General Trevino, federal military commander, has caused the imprisonment of every known agitator and criminal in that city to prevent the possibility of an uprising. These tactics were pursued frequently during the regime of former President Porfirio Diaz.

HOW TRAINED NURSE CURED HER PIMPLES

A trained nurse in New York writes: Oct. 17, 1912—"I was troubled with acne (or pimples) for three years. My face was broken out with pimples and would at times get very red and itched. After using them I bought the regular size of each, and my face is now perfectly clear and smooth. My friends are asking me what I used, and I shall be glad to recommend Resinol." (Signed) Miss E. Virginia Peterson, Trainee Nurse, 505 W. 11th Street, New York.

WHEN IS AN ORANGE RIPE? IS QUESTION

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Feb. 14.—"When is an orange ripe?" This is one of the next questions to be put before the supreme court of the United States in an appeal from the recent decision of the Florida supreme court upholding a constitutional provision forbidding fruit laws. The Florida state law prohibits the sale of an orange and its condition of ripeness before it can be shipped out of the state.

TAXICAB DRIVERS RESENT CRITICISM

May Send Delegation to Make Protest to Miss Loeb.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The Brotherhood of Taxicab Chauffeurs today are considering sending a delegation of protest to Miss Sofie Irene Loeb of New York, who last night told the League of American Pen Women that the basis of the white slave traffic in the large cities was the taxicab and cab system in vogue. To correct the alleged abuses Miss Loeb would have such vehicles recognized as common carriers with strict regulation, the abolition of the private cab stands and the establishment of a maximum taxicab fare of 25 cents a mile.

"The cabmen in New York especially," she said, "have a brotherhood of treachery so that it is almost impossible for victims to obtain redress."

The chauffeurs and cab drivers here indignantly deny that conditions as described by Miss Loeb exist in Washington.

ADMITTS THEFTS.
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Walter H. McGrew, a letter carrier, confessed to Postal Inspector James O'Connell yesterday that he had been stealing letters for a year. He was taken to the Alameda county jail after a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Krull. His bonds were placed at $2000. McGrew's confession came after a trap had been set for him and he was seen opening letters.

NEW POSTMASTERS NAMED.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Lora Bales was yesterday appointed postmaster at Buckeye, and Donna Petersen at Capetown, Cal.

About a half century ago Queen Victoria ordered Ridgways the world famous Tea Merchants, of London, to prepare for her personal use, a blend of over a dozen different kinds of Tea, which perfectly suited her Majesty's taste. This tea was named "Her Majesty's Blend" and it was used by Queen Victoria, regularly, during the last 45 years of her reign.

Exactly the same tea has been sold for a half century, and is sold to the most discriminating tea drinkers in the world, including the Emperor of Germany, the King of Bulgaria and tens of thousands of others in Europe and America.

Sherry's, Fifth Avenue, New York, used "Her Majesty's Blend" exclusively for the five o'clock tea of New York's four hundred for over twenty years.

The leading American grocers now sell it.

AMERICAN CLUB IS MARK FOR BULLETS

Portraits of McKinley and Taft Are Damaged During Firing.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15.—The rebel fire towards the palace yesterday was intended not only to bring about its surrender, but had for its purpose also the clearing of the intervening high buildings of machine guns and riflemen, and of silencing the federal battery operating in San Juan Leticia street, at a point midway between the arsenal and the palace.

This shelling wrought havoc among the buildings in that section of the city. The American Club was hit. The interior of the second and third floors were completely wrecked. Of 40 Americans within at the time several had almost miraculous escapes from death.

Seven shells crashed through the walls. The first two crashed through the reading-room on the front of the second story. The others entered above the second story on the sides.

In addition to the shell fire the interior as well as the exterior of the American Club was perforated in scores of places by bullets from rifles and machine guns.

PORTRAITS DAMAGED.

The shells which entered the reading-room tore their way through the stone window casings, demolished a heavy leather chair and exploded with terrific force. Shrapnel was hurled in all directions, cutting the furniture to ribbons, ripping the floors and walls and puncturing in a score of places the portraits which were about the room. The portrait most seriously damaged was that of President Madero.

President McKinley's face is now set in a circle of bullet holes, while the portrait of President Taft, hanging next, escaped with a single mark.

President-elect Wilson's features were riddled, while at the other end of the line of portraits balls found lodgment in plenty in the picture of Jefferson.

To the rear of this room is a large one used for billiards and pool. There many Americans were gathered, as the manager had forbidden the members to assemble in the front room, when a second series of shells crashed through the walls. These tore away through the story above.

Some of these shells entered almost on a line with the floor. From the fire which followed the greatest damage resulted. All but one shell exploded. This remains buried in the third wall which it encountered.

Portions of shrapnel shell were hurled through the floor above the billiard rooms among a group of Americans there. Four sleeping rooms on the fourth floor were wrecked. From one the entire wall was torn away.

The wrecking of this building is typical of the damage done many others in all parts of the city.

Just around the corner from the American Club, near Porter's Hotel, R. M. Meredith of New York was injured today. He was struck by shrapnel, suffering a scalp wound.

U. S. War Vessels Are Made Ready

VALLEJO, Cal., Feb. 14.—Orders were received at Mare Island navy yard yesterday to place the special service vessel Glacier in full commission, and inasmuch as the ship was ordered out of commission Wednesday, it is believed that yesterday's orders meant that the vessel will be dispatched to Mexico.

Rear-Admiral W. H. H. Southland requested a guard of marines for the cruiser South Dakota before that vessel's departure from San Diego, and it is believed that the Glacier will be used to transport the marines to Mexican waters, with ammunition, field and machine guns and stores, ordered yesterday and now being held here awaiting instructions.

The Glacier can be made ready to sail immediately if necessary.

VESSELS ARE COALING

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 14.—Rear-Admiral Alfred Reynolds, commander of the Pacific reserve fleet at the Puget Sound navy yard, received orders yesterday to make the vessels in his command ready to go to sea on short orders. As soon as the orders were received the warships began to take on full bunker supplies of coal and by Saturday morning the armored cruiser Pittsburgh, flagship, the battleship Oregon and the cruisers St. Louis, Chattanooga, Raleigh and Charleston will be coaled.

The ships of the reserve fleet are manned only by skeleton crews and there are not more than 2000 men in the entire fleet. If the fleet should be ordered into active service there would be only enough men on hand to man the Pittsburgh, Oregon and St. Louis, and the other vessels would have to await the arrival of complements from the East. It was stated at the navy yard that aside from the orders for the coal, no intimation had been received that the fleet would be ordered to Mexico. It was said the orders received today were merely precautionary.

SPEED TO BE OBJECT

GALVESTON, Tex., Feb. 14.—Major Robert H. Rolfe, U. S. A., quartermaster of the department of Texas, conferred yesterday with local agents of the Mallory and Morgan steamship lines as to the speed with which troops might be conveyed to Mexico from this port should the movement be ordered. He also inspected the Galveston terminals.

Major Rolfe was in Houston last night, where he discussed the possible troop movements with officials of the Southern Pacific railroad. It is stated that ample equipment will be available for the quick transportation of the fighting force from Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio to Galveston. The prospective movement will consist of the entire Third Regiment and Batteries A and C of the Third Field Artillery.

MEXICAN WOMEN PRAY FOR FOREIGN INTERVENTION

Conditions in Capital Rapidly Grow Worse; Rebels May Hold Out

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 14.—Five days of fighting in the streets of the capital has, in the opinion of close observers, done more to change the sentiment of Mexicans in regard to the intervention than has the whole two-year period of revolution.

Months ago a quiet feeling began to develop among a few of the better class of Mexicans in favor of outside assistance, but it found no public expression at that time. This sentiment has steadily grown, however, and the events of the last two days have strengthened it tremendously.

The subject is now frankly discussed by Mexicans and foreigners and frequently it is a Mexican citizen who expresses the opinion publicly that the United States, or some other power or powers jointly, should intervene.

In the Colonia Juarez last night a gathering of Mexican women of the better class made no secret of their desire for intervention. Their formal statement of their feeling was as follows:

"We are praying for the end of our country's troubles, even through intervention."

CONDITIONS GROW WORSE.

Conditions in the capital are steadily growing worse. All business, both public and private, except that connected with the war, has ceased. Even the general postoffice has closed its doors and many of its employees are carrying rifles in the ranks of the Federal army.

The city was in almost darkness throughout the night owing to the cutting of electric cables by shells. Today provisions of all kinds were scarcer than ever and prices soared to unheard of heights. Robberies, burglaries and petty crimes of all kinds are on the increase owing to the lack of police protection and illumi-

The disposition of garbage has become a serious problem and the changing breezes bring home to the people that the carcasses of hundreds of horses killed during the street fighting of the week still lie in the gutters.

Foreigners of military experience, who have carefully followed the operation in connection with the Diaz revolt declared today that in their opinion the Diaz would be able to hold out indefinitely.

TASK IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"The government has an impossible task in subjugating Diaz, either with heavy guns or by direct assault," declared one military expert connected with the British legation.

The rebels have ammunition enough for several days at least. They also have many more machine guns than they have yet brought into use. Their losses hitherto have been comparatively light. Their food supplies are sufficient. The men being better paid than two dollars a day and a large amount of money appears to be available for their cause.

The marksman of the rebel artillery has been excellent and their ability to sweep all approaches to their positions with machine guns make it appear inevitable that any attempt by the Madero forces to rush the arsenal would result in slaughter.

An attempt of this sort was made in the last hour of last night's battle when a detachment of federalists advanced on the arsenal and was repulsed with heavy loss. It is believed this experience will cause General Huerta to abandon such tactics and confine future operations to the bombardment of the rebel position.

The death of another woman during yesterday's fighting further excited the foreign residents. Mrs. Greenfield, mother of Harry Greenfield, an employee of a power company, was killed by a shell in Victor street. This was the third woman killed among the foreign residents. Mrs. Greenfield was a Canadian.

Refugees Arrive From Old Mexico

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—That American intervention is the only solution for the tangled Mexican situation was the opinion expressed by passengers who arrived yesterday from the zone of revolution and strife aboard the Pacific Mail liner Peru. The Peru left the west coast of the republic before the outbreak of the latest revolution, involving Madero and Diaz, and but scant news of the battles that have already been waged were received by the Peru passengers through the medium of wireless.

The Peru brought a refugee family, consisting of Mrs. N. E. W. Thomatic and her three daughters, the Misses Blanca, Ethel and Bione Thomatic, who fled the country because of the disturbed conditions and who will remain here until quiet is restored once more. They are the wife and daughters of an Australian who is employed at the Mexican cotton experimental station at Tapanatepec.

"While we were not molested at any time, my husband thought it best for us to be in a place of safety should further trouble occur," said Mrs. Thomatic. "The country has been in a state of unrest for many months and I am not surprised to learn that another revolution has broken out. We were fortunate to get away in time."

Mr. and Mrs. August Gantner, German travelers, were also congratulating themselves that they had left Mexico before further trouble materialized. "We were in the city of Mexico, where all the fighting is now going on, only a few months ago," said Gantner. "Conditions were quiet then, but you can never tell what will happen under the order of things in Mexico."

VALLEY OAKS TO BE MECCA OF FARM BUYER

A FLOURISHING FIELD OF ALFALFA ON THE FAMOUS VALLEY OAKS TRACT IN THE SACRAMENTO VALLEY. THIS TRACT IS TO BE OPENED SUNDAY BY STINE & KENDRICK.

The special excursion to Valley Oaks on Sunday next which will herald the opening of this immense tract will carry on it from this city alone at least a hundred interested buyers of country acreage. Stine & Kendrick of San Francisco, sole selling agents for the land, are in charge of the trip.

Valley Oaks is located near the town of Galt and is said to possess extremely rich soil adapted to the growth of the crops and fruits for which California is noted. Small acre tracts have been laid out and to purchasers, with the deed of sale, is given an irrigation system without additional cost.

Although the formal opening will not occur till Sunday a number of sales have already been recorded by F. G. Mitchell, of Stine & Kendrick, who is sales manager of this division.

FLORAL SOCIETY TO MEET HERE

County Organization Will Hear Talk on Carnations Monday Night.

The meeting of the Alameda County Floral Society Monday night at the rooms of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be of interest to lovers of carnations. Mrs. Theodore Sachau of San Leandro will read a paper on this variety of flowers and will illustrate with cuttings how to propagate new plants. Mrs. Sachau is considered an expert in carnation growing and her talk will be of a practical and instructive character. The meeting will be free to all persons interested in gardening.

Although the Alameda County Floral Society is but a few months old it has made gratifying progress. An increase of membership has been noted and more candidates for admission are reported. The fact that no initiation fee is required and that the dues are only twenty-five cents per month makes the membership very inexpensive. It is aimed to have instructive papers and discussions at every meeting and whenever possible flowers are brought to the monthly gatherings to be exhibited and talked over.

Arrangements are progressing for the first flower show to be given about the first of May. This show will be free to the public and it is hoped that it will be one worthy of the fertile soil and balmy climate of this county.

NOTABLE EVENTS OF WARTIME TO BE TOLD

PRIEST'S ADVICE LED TO HER RECOVERY

To say that a specific cure for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement, but in Eckman's Alternative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanent benefit a large number of consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer for biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a consumptive well-nourished is the right one, but what's going to improve the patient? Eckman's Alternative has brought about full recovery in many cases of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is one:

ROCHESTER, N. Y.
 "Gentlemen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tuberculosis, pneumonia at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a friend to take Eckman's Alternative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and weight. Now weigh 122 pounds, and am absolutely well. Believing I owe it to myself and others, I make this statement."

FAKE MARRIAGE IS LAID TO DR. HORN

Pastor Accused of Having Illegitimate Child in the Northern City.

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 14.—Rev. Frank Horn, or Owen de Tovee, as he is also known, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church of Richmond, seems fated to remain conspicuously in the limelight despite the fact that he was freed by Magistrate Lamkin yesterday from the Redwood City jail where he had been incarcerated on a charge of bigamy preferred by Eva Mae Metz de Tovee, whom the court recognizes as Horn's legal wife.

Documentary evidence received by District Attorney Franklin Swart yesterday afternoon, five hours after Horn's release, is accepted by Swart as establishing proof that Horn has an illegitimate child living in or near Seattle. The fact was made known through the filing of a divorce complaint in Seattle by the mother of the baby girl, Jennie Sidwell, who died six months ago.

COUPLE WERE NOT MARRIED.

The complaint alleges that the couple intermarried at Everett, Wash., May 16, 1909, and that a child, Catherine Alice, was at the time of the divorce suit was born. The child is said to be living. The district attorney said he learned the couple never married, although a marriage license was secured in September, 1909, by them.

THREE ARE BITTEN BY RABID CANINE

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 14.—Norris Goodwin, the 20-year-old son of James W. Goodwin, millinery attorney of San Francisco, and two employees on the Goodwin estate are in a serious condition at the Peninsula hospital in Palo Alto as the result of wounds inflicted by a mad dog, a blue-blooded hound, which attacked the three men. The animal first attacked young Goodwin and then sprang upon the servants, biting them severely. The victims are undergoing the Pasteur treatment.

BADLY BURNED WHEN WATER BAG BURSTS

The bursting of a hot water bag caused serious injury yesterday to Miss Rose Pfund, a University of California student and daughter of H. F. Pfund, director of physical culture in the Oakland schools. Miss Pfund returned to her home, 2904 Webster street, complaining of chills. A hot water bag had been almost boiling water was applied to her side. Suddenly it burst, scalding the girl badly. The shock caused her to lose consciousness. She is in a serious condition.

RACETRACK BILL KILLED.

BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 14.—A bill to prohibit racing gambling in Idaho was killed in the Senate today. Resolutions providing for the recall of all public officers of the State were introduced simultaneously in both branches of the legislature.

RUDDERLESS SHIP IS ABANDONED

Captain and Crew Stay on the Vessel in Mid-Ocean.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Captain Mace of the steamer Chicago, which arrived from Havre yesterday, reported that on February 7 he sighted the British freight steamer Crown Point, from London for Norfolk, Va., in distress about 1500 miles east of New York. Lifeboats were sent to the Crown Point and it was learned that she had lost her rudder.

Captain Mace offered to take off Captain Dunstan and his crew and bring them to New York, but this offer was refused. The Crown Point was not taken in tow. Captain Mace explained, because of a low coal supply and an especially heavy sea that later developed into a hurricane.

The Crown Point was previously reported in distress by wireless on February 6, the day before she was sighted by the Chicago. She left London on January 12 for Norfolk, Va.

RED PEPPER AIDS THIS PICKPOCKET

Woman's Violent Sneezing Covers Up Theft of Her Purse.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Chinese snuff, or red pepper, in the hands of a clever pickpocket, served its purpose today when sneezing made it possible for the thief to obtain the purse of Mrs. Mary Townsend of 1824 Page street. The trick was turned in the midst of a branch public library crowded with people.

Mrs. Townsend was sitting reading a book and had laid her purse containing $15 and her visiting cards on the table beside her. Suddenly something in the atmosphere caused her to sneeze and cough and for several minutes before she recovered. When she turned she found that her pocketbook was gone. So many persons were around her that she has no idea as to the identity of the thief.

WOULD PROVIDE FOR HELPLESS OLD AGE

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 14.—The introduction in the Senate of a bill providing for old age pensions was the feature of yesterday's proceedings of the Washington Legislature. The bill provides that persons in old age who are unable to earn a livelihood, are to receive from the State not to exceed ten dollars a month. The bill does not name the minimum age at which persons may benefit by the proposed act.

The Senate passed a bill providing State aid for tuberculosis patients and a petition asking the British Columbia Parliament to close the saloons across the international line from the town of Blaine, which has voted "dry."

The House passed the permanent highway bill increasing the tax levy for road building purposes from one and a half mills to two and a half mills.

BLAME CIVILIAN CREW FOR DAMAGE TO BOILER

VALLEJO, Feb. 14.—The Mare Island Board of Survey, which has been considering the repair work on the collier Prometheus, has at last completed its labors and a recommendation will be forwarded to Washington this afternoon. It is understood that the findings will be unfavorable to the civilian crew in the engine-rooms of the collier, it having been decided to allow United States sailors to man the new water tube boilers on the Prometheus was due to carelessness of the civilians. It is likely that the Navy Department may use this case as a precedent, and in the future make up the collier crews from enlisted men exclusively.

PROPOSED "MOTHERS' STRIKE" IS NEW DEVELOPMENT IN BAXLEY IMBROGLIO

UNFAIRNESS IS CHARGE MADE

Ask That Defendant Be Allowed Attorney: Recall Threatened.

A mothers' strike is the latest weapon to be employed by the women in Fruitvale School District, No. 3, in their fight against the alleged unfair treatment of Miss Alice V. Baxley by the Board of Education. The mothers according to Mrs. A. C. Christensen, president of the Mothers' Club of the California Civic League, will take their children from the school and keep them out until the transferred principal is reinstated.

The mothers base their charges of unfairness on the ground that the accused principal was not allowed an attorney that the investigation is going to be prejudiced and statements of opinion from teachers and not cross examining them to ascertain what is testified as a matter of fact. It is testified as a matter of fact that the matter is a matter of fact and opinion and is generally carried on in a manner in a shipshod and inefficient manner.

CLAIMS RIGHT TO ATTORNEY.
"One of the cardinal principles of justice," said Mrs. Christensen, who was present at the hearing of Miss Baxley last night, but was not allowed to remain at the investigation is that the defendant be given the right to an attorney. Miss Baxley asked this right and it was refused. Her attorney was excluded and the public is excluded the board preferring to keep this matter behind closed doors. Her dismissal is already decided on, although the hearing is not over. Dr. Kelley told me so himself.

The mothers will keep their children out of the school until Miss Baxley gets justice. Also the Civic Center is going to fight the case in two ways. We will lay the matter before the grand jury and with the aid of mothers clubs which we will enlist and probably the Oakland Center as well we are going to start recall proceedings. We have started a fight and we mean to keep it up.

ATTORNEY IS DENIED

The hearing last night was conducted much as the former one and was adjourned after a few witnesses had been heard until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Director Cook, evidently changing his mind about allowing the principal an attorney, moved that if Miss Baxley desired a representative she be allowed to have one present. This motion, however, was lost.

Chairman Calvin V. Orr after the hearing, declared that the board was absolutely in power in the matter, and that the mothers' clubs would be defied. They always come here with protests," said he. "I for one, will not listen. I think the board can handle these affairs without aid from outsiders."

NEW PRINCIPAL ON STAND

C. B. Crane, principal of the school since Miss Baxley's transfer, testified that he found the school up to standard in deportment and scholarship, and that the teachers seemed to him to be in harmony. He declared that the office records of the principal were different from his but admitted that he found all papers necessary to him to carry on the school.

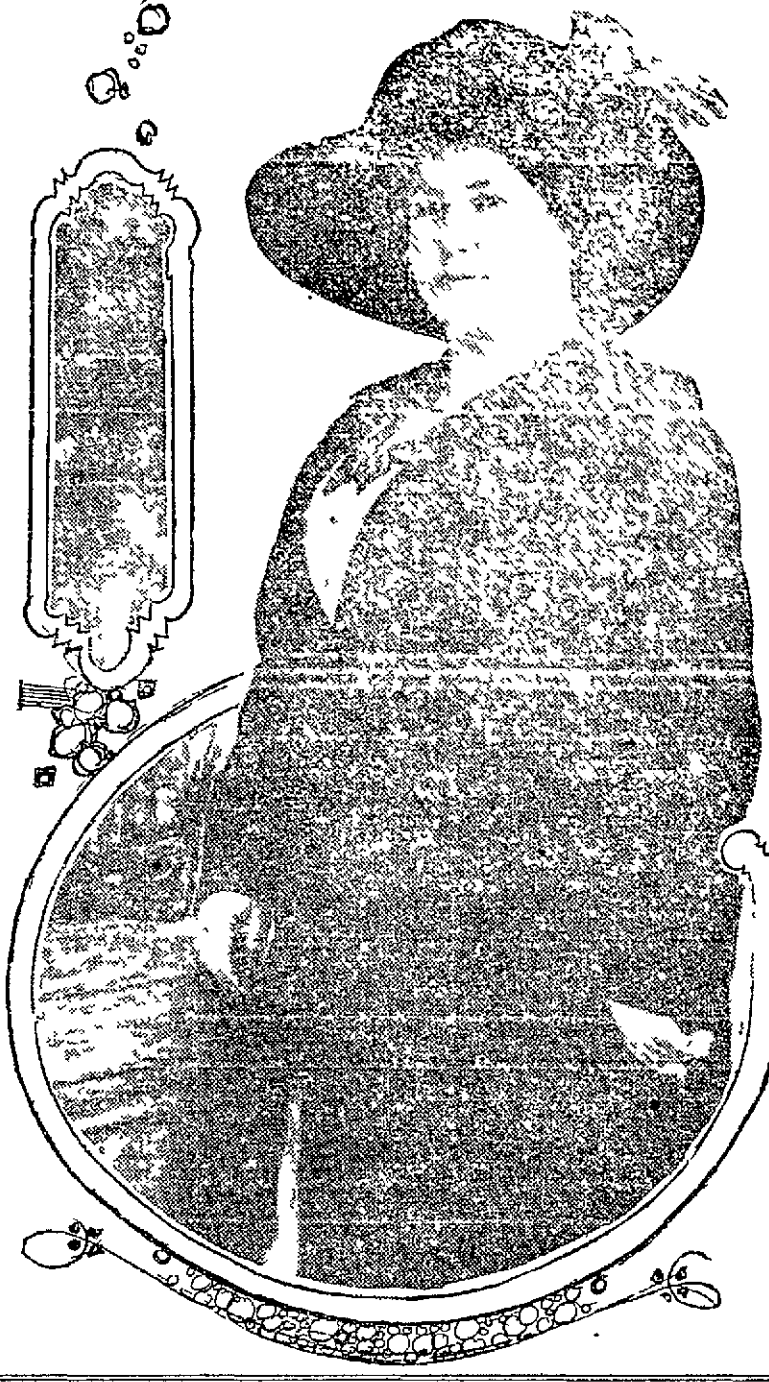

There are many records I have not yet examined at all," he declared. "I should say that Miss Baxley used a different system from mine. I cannot make comparisons."

Miss Julia Leigh and Miss Gertrude Mosher testified their statements were principally expressions of opinion and did little except to establish the fact that they disliked the principal and did not work in harmony with her. Miss Ida Vandergaaf, school supervisor, declared that she had asked Miss Baxley if a certain examination was held and was answered that it had been held during the absence of the class teacher. Miss Leigh the teacher in question declared the examination was not given. Miss Vandergaaf also stated that a certain teacher, whom Miss Baxley ordered transferred, was a close personal friend of hers, and that she had contrary to a rule forbidding superiors to gossip allowed this teacher to tell her of quarrels in the school.

ADMITS SIGNING BOOK.

Miss Gertrude Mosher said that Miss Baxley had declared teachers were given instructions they never received. Miss Baxley stated that they were in the order book, which teachers signed as having read. Miss Mosher declared that she had seen no such book but on Miss Baxley's offering to show her signature in it admitted that she had signed it occasionally. Whether she signed without reading the rules was not asked. Miss Baxley later expressed the belief that this, however, was the case.

WOMEN PASS LIE

Miss Baxley and Miss Leigh clashed over a question of certain trouble this teacher had in another school with another principal. Miss Baxley declared Miss Leigh had told her of this trouble, charging the principal with bad faith. Miss Leigh admitted charging a school supervisor with bad faith but not the principal.

"You certainly said the principal also displayed bad faith," declared Miss Baxley. "I did not," retorted Miss Leigh. "You did," declared Miss Baxley. President Orr interrupted to ask if this had any bearing on the matter. Miss Baxley replied that she desired to establish that once before when this teacher was in trouble, she adopted tactics similar to those employed by the teachers in the present case.

WOMEN ARE PRESENT

Mrs. Christensen, president of the Civic Center, Mrs. Helen Kuchelinski, Mrs. Louise Slater, Mrs. L. Heinz, Mrs. Gunter, George Ingraham and several others, members of the Mothers' Club of the school and the Civic Center, were present. Two of these women, called as witnesses, were allowed to be present at the hearing which was held in the superintendent's office.

Mrs. Christensen, besides charging the board with bad faith in the Baxley matter, specifically charges Miss Annie Florence Brown with making statements regarding immorality in the school which she later denied, and declared also that Miss Brown stated that the hearing of Miss Baxley's case would be public. "Miss Brown has shown bad faith," said Mrs. Christensen, and we are sorry, for we thought a woman on the

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

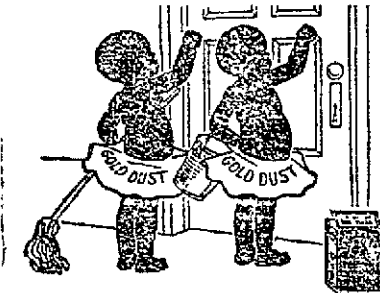

DOES it occur to you, my friends, that woman's labor never ends—that is, if she's inclined to be a trifle stubborn constantly. Some housewives glory in the thought that battles won must be re-fought.

First Aid to The Housewife

Mrs. Smith or Brown thus reason, in a certain town, that Gold Dust helps to minimize the number of back-aches and sighs.

The Gold Dust Twins forever toil, with dirt and trouble as a foil. They start each morning, at the top, and only after night-fall stop.

Opportunity is Knocking at Your Door

This jingle is for those who try to smile at toil and reason "Why," who will not let the household cares crush down life's other glad affairs. You'll find, where Mrs. Smith or Brown thus reason, in a certain town, that Gold Dust helps to minimize the number of back-aches and sighs.

Each grain of Gold Dust also shares in cleaning up the household wares; each mop it touches seals a bond, to make a mop a fairy wand; each brush or cloth holds regal sway in driving dirt's dull care away.

MISS ETHEL ROOSEVELT TO WED DR. RICHARD DERBY

MISS ETHEL ROOSEVELT, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO DR. RICHARD DERBY WILL SOON BE FORMALLY ANNOUNCED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Society will be interested to learn that Colonel and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt have made known to their relatives and intimate friends the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt, to Dr. Richard Derby, a son of the late Dr. Richard H. Derby of this city. Formal announcement of the engagement is to be made within a few days.

Dr. Derby, who is a graduate of Harvard, class of 1903, is a young practicing physician in this city. His father was a well-known eye specialist, a graduate of Harvard away back in '67, and whose death occurred on July 4, 1907, at his summer place at Dark Harbor, Me.

Miss Roosevelt has been conspicuous in New York society since leaving the White House, although she has spent most of her time with her parents at Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay, L. I. Like her father, she is a devotee of outdoor life and sports, being an expert horsewoman. Few young women are more widely known than Miss Roosevelt, who holds the distinction of having spent more years in the White House than any young woman before her.

Price of Pythons Is Advanced More Than $5 a Foot

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—"With the price of pythons advanced $5 a foot, lions more than 100 per cent a head and other animals in proportion to the supply, 'zoo' keepers are facing a condition that makes the high cost of living 'bugaboo' appear insignificant in comparison."

Thus spoke "Cy" Dwyer, keeper of the Lincoln Park Zoo, yesterday, as he stood before the cage of Guinevere, a huge python.

"And just as I was getting ready to put in a python house, too," he added. "It has got to a point now where you can't get a twenty-six-foot python for less than $1000. They've advanced $5 and more a foot. But the price of reptiles is not so bad as lions. I paid $1200 for Roger, our prize lion, a few months ago; got a bargain; he's worth $3000 now."

"Elephants have gone up, too, a first-class one costing about $5000. And a rhinoceros—well, if you get a fair one not too old and not altogether 'second hand,' he'll cost you $7000. I wanted to add a rhinoceros and a giraffe to my collection, but I can't have both. Why, a giraffe is as good an investment as diamonds, and he'll cost you $7000; nearly twice as much as a year ago."

STRATTON MAKES REPLY TO DWYER

Says His Messenger Was Refused Conference With Commissioner.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Collector of Customs Stratton sent an additional letter to United States District Attorney McNab yesterday in reference to his clash with the harbor commissioners on the handling of baggage from the steamer Cleveland.

Collector Stratton's letter in part is as follows:

"Complaint is made that I was discourteous in not ascertaining from the harbor commissioners the extent of my official duties. I have official report before me, already referred to, to the effect that the deputy surveyor, officially authorized by me to confer with the board, after having made engagement was refused any conference by the president thereof. The terms of the report, among others, Mr. Williams, one of the harbor commissioners, 'If the president will not confer with the representative of the collector, the board, and I, he claims the right, as is now apparent, to supersede certain actions of the customs authorities, then it would appear that both sides ought to be gratified that an authoritative legal opinion is sought.'

"I would thank you very much if, when you discuss the main questions with the board, you would take up these minor matters. I have never, as far as I know, in my three terms as collector, been accused of unfairness and I do not purpose to let any such statement go uncorrected."

FAILS TO DEPART.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 14.—The harbor commissioner of a firm of public auctioneers and one of the leading plaintiffs in a suit to close down an elevator shaft in the McCormick building to his death yesterday. He started to leave the car just as it was starting.

Remarkable Catarrh Cure

Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gathering in Eyes, Nose, Throat and Lungs.

"Nine-tenths of humanity suffer with catarrh but do not know what catarrh is," said an expert doctor, a specialist in blood analysis. "It is treated locally because nature tries to drive it out of the system. But nature must have help. Nasal catarrh is merely an outlet, and it is folly to expect a cure by inhalants or local applications. If a stream is polluted at its source it is ridiculous to waste time in purification at its mouth. By a long series of elaborate experiments at the Swift Laboratory it is definitely known that catarrh can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antitoxin remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for food elements that effectively cleanse the system and thus put an end to all catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleanses the stomach of mucous accumulation, enabling only pure blood making materials to enter the intestines, combining with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely catarrh often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on every drug store shelf. Write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 117 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. at your druggist.

Kahn's $3.50 Button Shoes

Are Setting Feminine Oakland Astir

NEVER before did shoes at such a modest price look so surprisingly like five and six dollar sorts. And it is not alone in the trick of the cutting—the smart short vamp, the graceful shape, or the handsome gray and brown "nubuck" tops that are so popular this spring. It is also the sterling quality of the glossy patent coltskin leather of which they are made. A time we had of it with the makers to get these shoes to sell at $3.50, for leather has greatly advanced. Only the magnitude of Kahn orders accomplished it, and we doubt if anywhere else can shoes of such high quality and beauty be had for.....

'WELFARE OF CHILD' TO BE LUNCHEON THEME

Notables of City and State to Attend Affair Tomorrow

The annual luncheon of the Child's Welfare League of Alameda County at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow will be distinguished from former gatherings of the kind in many ways. The great round table of the luncheon hall will be surrounded by notables from over the whole State, including Governor Hiram Johnson, Mayor Frank K. Mott, most of the members of the Legislature from this county, members of the local city and county government, and public spirited citizens, who are interested in the work of this league from humanitarian principles.

CHILD WELFARE, THEME.

The theme of the luncheon will be "The Welfare of the Child." Simple as this may sound, the subject is far from being a simple one, and the topics on which the various speakers have agreed to talk touch almost every avenue of human endeavor, and much of the legislation proposed at the present time for this State. Many members of the Legislature, as well as Governor Johnson, who is the principal speaker, will enlighten the members of the league as to what the proposed legislative acts will mean for the welfare of children.

Governor Johnson will talk on "Social Justice." This topic is so closely related to the welfare of children that already much interest is manifested in the Governor's address.

Miss Bessie J. Wood, president, will act as chairman of the day. Governor Johnson will be introduced by Mayor Mott. Mrs. H. N. Rowell, president of the Berkeley Federation of Mothers' Clubs, will speak upon the "Kindergarten Bill." Miss Anna Chase will explain the "Injunction and Abatement Bills," and Mrs. J. W. Orr will speak. Mrs. Lloyd Osbourne, wife of the novelist, will give her views on "The Mother's Pension Bill." Each of the Senators and Assemblymen is expected to contribute his views on the various legislative matters before them now.

There have been 500 reservations for plates.

With Governor Johnson at the great round table will be seated the following:

Dr. Luella Clay Carson, Mrs. I. Lowenberg, Richard Gauze Boone, Miss Anna E. Chase, Mrs. Lloyd Osbourne, Miss Beatrice McCall, Miss Mollie E. Connors, Mrs. F. C. Havens, Mrs. Fairweather, Chief of Police Petersen, Judge Everett J. Brown, Judge J. B. Ogden, Judge W. H. Donahue, District Attorney W. H. L. Hyman, Mrs. Cora E. Jones, William I. Day, Miss Blanche Morse, Mrs. J. B. Hume, Mrs. C. M. Weyman, Miss Grace Trevor, Miss Grace Fisher, Mrs. A. C. Foster, Mrs. C. S. Chamberlain, Mrs. L. C. Grasser, Mrs. J. P. Kelly, Mrs. Thos. WOMEN OFFER UP RELAYED PRAYER IN COURT

Silently Seek Aid of Heaven in Clearing Westenbergs Charge.

Tilt With Chief Petersen Narrowly Averted During Today's Session.

During the trial of J. C. Westenbergs, missionary and president of the California Federation for the suppression of vice, which was continued from yesterday afternoon to today before Judge Mortimer Smith, women followers of the lecturer sat in a long line in the front bench of the court room lobby, and in hand, took turns in relaying their silent prayers for the righteous outcome of the case.

Westenbergs is charged with violating the city ordinance in having attempted to conduct a meeting at which he planned to exhibit stereopticon views concerning the "white slave traffic," for which he charged admission. The city ordinance provides that such an entertainment could not be given without the payment of a license.

Westenbergs appeared before Judge Smith this morning on another charge, that of criminal libel. The charge was preferred by Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen.

WORDY ROW IN COURT.

Attorney Burns, representing Westenbergs, asked for a continuance of two weeks to plead on this charge, and a spat occurred between him and Prosecuting Attorney Ezra Decoto.

"There is no reason why this case should be dragged along," said Decoto. "This is the second continuance asked in the simple matter of pleading to the charge of guilty or not guilty. Why should I take the two weeks that the defendant to make up his mind on that matter?"

"I am not paid for my services," responded Burns.

"I don't see what that has to do with it," said Decoto. "You are taking up this court's time without any justification."

"I am giving my services in the interests of the morality and welfare of the people of the State of California," said Burns. "I do not intend to be rushed in this matter to the detriment of my client."

Judge Smith allowed a continuance till next Tuesday morning to give Westenbergs a chance to plead.

SENSATION PROMISED.

Sensational developments concerning Westenbergs are promised at the continuation. The police declare that the man who is before the courts does not appear without an abundance of money, and that before the trial is over they will have facts to back up this assertion. At yesterday's hearing it was stipulated between the two attorneys that Westenbergs' reputation for morality and honesty should be accepted as proved without the introduction of character witnesses. Whether this will be admitted by the prosecution in the libel case, is, however, a matter of doubt.

Chief Petersen and listened to the testimony in the opening of the trial of Westenbergs for violating the city ordinance, and a tilt between him and Attorney Burns was narrowly averted. Burns was attempting to prove by cross questioning Sergeant James Walters that Chief Petersen had instigated the arrest of Westenbergs.

Burns shook his finger angrily in the face of Chief Petersen, and walked up to him in a threatening manner, while apparently questioning Walters.

Petersen's face flushed and an angry glint came into his eye.

"Don't do that," he snapped as he stepped toward Burns.

Burns hesitated, and it looked for a moment as if there would be trouble.

"I don't believe in speaking here yet, I suppose," he muttered.

POLICE AID ASKED TO FIND MISSING HEIR

Search is being made for a woman who was formerly Miss Catherine Delaney, who is held up an estate of $50,000 left her in Hartford, Conn. It is believed that the woman, who was married since the executors of the estate last heard of her, is living on Bryant street, San Francisco, but afterwards came to Oakland.

30 CASH REGISTER MEN CONVICTED

Conspiracy to Monopolize the Trade Is Alleged in Counts.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 14.—"Guilty as charged in all three counts of the indictment," was the verdict rendered last night by the jury trying the case of John M. Patterson and the twenty-eight other officials or former officials of the National Cash Register Company, who were charged by the government with violating the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust law. The three counts specified in the indictments are, first, conspiracy to monopolize trade in the cash register business; second, monopolizing the trade in the cash register business, and third, maintaining this monopoly between 1909 and 1912.

The jury deliberated on the case for about ten hours and there was but a scattered few of the defendants and spectators in the courtroom when Foreman Edward C. Morrow announced the verdict. President Patterson, when asked for a statement, said:

"In view of the civil litigation against the National Cash Register Company, I do not desire to make a statement at this time."

The indictments were returned February 22, 1912, after a long search for evidence by special agents of the government.

The present trial began November 19 and has occupied about fifty actual trial days.

The total expense to the cash register company is estimated at little less than half a million dollars. The government expense has been estimated at about half as much.

PENALTY HEAVY.

The indictments named thirty men, but Edgar Parks was dismissed recently by Judge Hollister upon the representation that he in no way was connected with the company in the last three years, the time named in the indictments.

Each of the three counts carries with it a maximum penalty of $50,000 fine and a jail sentence of not more than twelve months, thus bringing the maximum sentence for each man up to $15,000 fine and thirty-six months in jail.

That the cases will be appealed was indicated when attorneys for the defense attempted to make a motion previous to the dismissal of the jury. Judge Hollister assured them that any motions could be made later.

MANY DEFENDANTS.

The defendants were: John H. Patterson, Dayton, O., president; Edward A. Deeds, Dayton, vice-president; George E. Edgerton, Dayton, secretary; William F. Rippus, treasurer; William H. Massey, William Pluss and Alfred A. Thomas, Dayton; Robert Patterson, director; Thomas J. Watson, sales manager; Joseph E. Rogers, assistant sales manager; Alexander C. Harnd, salesman; Frederick S. High, district manager, Boston; Elmy Eves, district manager, San Francisco; Arthur A. Wentz, Columbus, O.; George E. Morgan, Dayton, O.; Charles T. Palmores, Chicago; Charles Snyder, Elizabeth, N. J.; Walter Cool, Denver; Myer N. Jacobs, Pittsburgh; Mont L. Lasley, Detroit; Earl B. Wilson, Los Angeles; Jonathan B. Hayward, patent attorney, New York; Alexander W. Sloan, New York; John J. Range, Washington; M. G. Keith, New York; William Cummings, Brooklyn, Ill., not on trial; J. O. Laird, Toronto; W. C. Howe, San Francisco; E. H. Epperson, Minneapolis; Edgar Parks, dismissed, New York.

After thanking the members of the jury and informing them that in case they were called to jury duty again in this court they would be excused upon request, Judge Howard Hollister dismissed the jury and adjourned court.

HITS BURGLAR ON HEAD; ROUTS HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—John Kanellos of 67 Freedom street, was in bed when he heard the window raised early this morning and seizing a revolver, got up. As he did so a burglar took a step into the room and put a gun to his face. Kanellos brought his weapon down heavily on the head of the intruder, who made a dive for the open window. Kanellos fired a shot at him, but it is believed that he missed.

CUTS HORSE WITH AXE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—John Battaine, employed in the Columbus market, Davis and Pacific streets, was arrested this afternoon, charged with cruelty to animals. He is accused of J. Le Port of 556 Green street with throwing an axe at the latter's horse because the animal was eating a carrot. The axe cut a deep gash in the horse's nose and may render the animal useless.

FREE LECTURES TO BE GIVEN IN SCHOOLS

Interesting Themes to be Discussed in All Parts of the City.

Board of Education Announces Course; Lecturers' Services Gratuitous.

The Board of Education of Oakland last fall established a course of free public lectures given in certain school houses centrally located in different portions of the city. The lecturers who speak at these various centers give their services to the city gratuitously. New York and San Francisco have been doing this for some years with marked success. Oakland began the movement last fall and the second course of lectures is now being given.

This evening there are six lectures to be given in different sections of Oakland as follows:

Chabot Hall, Grove street, between Tenth and Eleventh, Dr. William C. Voorsanger, subject, "Tuberculosis and Its Prevention," illustrated by lantern slides.

Grant school, Twenty-ninth street and Broadway, Professor James T. Allen, subject, "Court Life in Greece Three Thousand Years Ago," illustrated by lantern slides.

Framont high school, Boulevard and Forty-seventh avenue, Edwin R. Jackson, "In Washington and on the Battlefield in President Lincoln's Time," illustrated by lantern slides.

Washington school, Sixteenth street and Shattuck avenue, Professor Richard C. Boone, "Education That Comes to Us Through Institutions Other Than Schools."

Lockwood school, East Fourteenth street and Sixty-eighth avenue, Rev. William D. Simonds, "Abraham Lincoln, the Dangerous Radical."

Garfield school, Twenty-third avenue and East Sixteenth street, R. S. Wheeler, "Sights and Scenes in India," illustrated by lantern slides.

RAILROAD STRIKE DEADLOCK ACUTE

Federal Mediators Admit They Have No Further Conferences Planned.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Notwithstanding assurances that further conferences, looking to a settlement, were to be held, it became known today that the deadlock between the railroads of the East and their 34,000 firemen is more acute than any time since the negotiations were opened. At noon Federal mediators, trying to bring both sides together, admitted that they had no further appointments for talks.

The conference committee of railroad managers went into secret session early this morning, the firemen's representatives remained at their hotel. Neither side would yield an inch.

While the firemen were in conference this afternoon it was stated authoritatively that unless the railroads made concessions during the next few hours, the strike order would be sent out tonight.

ST. MARY'S THESPIANS SCORE IN SKETCHES

Students of St. Mary's College scored success in the presentation of three sketches at the annual entertainment of the P. G. E. Literary and debating society of the college last night. The affair was given in the alumni gymnasium and was well attended. Two sketches by student authors were presented. "The Governor's Gift," by Louis F. Le Fèvre, was enacted by the author, Richard Hammond, and Frederick West.

Corland Bousher appeared in the leading role in his sketch, "Thieves in the Night." Leo A. Murasky essayed the role of "The Gent," and Emmet Stevens appeared as "The Cheat."

The third sketch, "Honor and the Thief," by Will Scerif, was well received. Richard Curtis and Howard Magee appeared in the leading roles.

NOTED BEAUTY TO WIELD SHOVEL WITH OFFICIALS

Lady de Baihe to Plant Acacia; State and City Heads to Aid In Clean-Up

The hundreds of spectators who will be present Saturday afternoon to witness the beautifying of the lot across from the Hotel Oakland, which the Progress and Prosperity Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce is to make into a miniature park, will see a woman, shovel in hand and clad in a jaunty tailor suit, working as energetically and with the same enthusiasm as the rest of the beautifiers in laying out flower beds, etc.

That woman will be Lady de Baihe (Lily Langtry), who, when she learned last night that great doling were to be going on Saturday directly across from her residence pro tem, eagerly asked if she, too, couldn't join in the work of parking the lot. And so, with the delight of a girl in her teens, engaged in a tomboy prank, the beautiful English actress will shoulder a pick and shovel and go to work.

"You see," she said last night, in discussing the matter with Kenneth Millikan, chairman of the sub-committee in charge of the work, "I want to plant a tree over there, one of your beautiful acacias, because when I leave here this week my heart will be left behind. The tree will be mine, and so the heart will have something to keep it company."

Governor Johnson, Mayor Ralph of San Francisco, Mayor Mott and all the commissioners and prominent business men of Oakland will be among the hosts of spectators present to witness the work of the progressive spirit of this community, who voluntarily agreed to make attractive the small patch of ground which the owners themselves had yesterday cleaned and cleared for active beautifying.

The novelty of a situation in which progressive spirited citizens would get out and doff coats and hats and wield the pick and shovel to insure a "City Beautiful," appealed to Lady de Baihe.

"Why," she said to Chairman Millikan, "they wouldn't dream of doing such a thing in England, would they? I think it is great, and nothing would delight me more than to get out and help them. No wonder I love Oakland and dislike to leave it. You can justly be proud of your city, not only for its beauties of soil and agriculture, architecture and climate, but because of the progressiveness and public spiritedness of your citizens. You know you. What shall I wear when I go to work tomorrow?"

ILLINOIS TO EXHIBIT AT PANAMA FAIR

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 14.—Governor Dunne is in favor of a proper appropriation for an Illinois exhibit at the Panama Pacific exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915. A bill introduced by Senator Franklin appropriates $200,000 for an Illinois exhibit and creates a commission of 21 persons, consisting of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house, five senators, five representatives and seven citizens to be appointed by Governor Dunne to have charge of the plans and exhibits.

This measure has not been examined by the Governor who, it is believed, prefers a smaller commission that might make one or more trips to California to look after the Illinois exhibit before and during the exposition.

"The exposition being of world-wide scope I certainly am in favor of Illinois being decently represented," he said today. "I have not seen the Franklin bill, however, and will wait until I have examined it before forming my views regarding its merit."

Eats Freely But Has No Dyspepsia

Takes a Mild Laxative With Good Pepsin and Insures His Comfort and Pleasure.

MRS. OLIVER YOUNG.

Fortunate is the man who can eat "anything" without suffering the tortures of dyspepsia, but as few are so fortunate care should be taken in the matter of diet. Many show indications of food thoroughly and taking a short walk after the heavy meal of the day will do much towards assisting digestion. Any grown-up person ought to know the peculiar food that do not agree, and these should be avoided.

When these common-sense aids fail, the next thing to do is to take a mild digestive tonic with laxative properties, and there is none better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains the greatest of all aids to digestion, good pepsin. It has other ingredients that act mildly on the bowels, which together form a combination for the relief of dyspepsia or indigestion that is unsurpassed.

Its action is to tone and strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that they can again do their work naturally without outside aid, when that happy moment comes all medicine can be dispensed with. It is the best remedy obtainable for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, headaches, drowsiness after eating, gas on the stomach, etc. Thousands of users will testify to this, among them Mrs. Oliver Young Merrill, Wis. She says: "After many years suffering from indigestion I have obtained what I believe to be permanent relief by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I feel 10 years younger, my work seems easy, my breath is no longer bad, and I eat what I want without distress." Syrup Pepsin is sure in its results and a vast improvement over chewing or swallowing tablets and minis, or taking cathartics, salts, etc., all of which are harsh and nauseous and at best do but temporary good. You can obtain Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will go—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

DISTRICT HANGS ITS FIRST SLAYER

Samuel Rauen Goes to Gallows for the Murder of His Wife.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Samuel Rauen, the first man to be hanged in the District of Columbia during the administration of President Taft, went to his death today. He was convicted of wife-murder. President Taft declined to interfere with the carrying out of justice. The President last month granted a respite to Rauen, who was to have been hanged on January 31. On January 30 the convicted man's attorney went to the White House to appeal to the President and finding a Sunday-school delegation received by Taft, stepped into line. Though this means he got a personal interview with the chief executive and the respite was granted.

During the Taft administration there have been seven convictions for murder in the first degree in the district, but no execution. The President commuted two death sentences. Rauen not only shot his wife to death, but also killed his brother.

RAMBLER PEOPLE MAKE BIG SALES

F. R. Fageol of Oakland Among Gathering of Motor Dealers.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

The world's record for rapid sales of motor cars to individual buyers was again broken by the Rambler people at the thirtieth annual automobile show, held at the Chicago Coliseum. One hundred and twenty-three cars, or approximately $357,000 worth of automobiles, is the record for a ten-day show. This record was set by the Rambler company during show week one year ago, when 137 cars were sold.

This makes the culmination of a campaign extending over a period of 30 days, in which all the Rambler automobiles included in the show were sold. The company's record is a record for the entire industry, and each dealer brought from one to five prospective buyers to the show.

Other dealers came from far distant points, including H. S. Chapman, representing the London Automobile Club, who brought a party of five to the show. F. R. Fageol, having from Oakland; J. D. Brackett, coming from Calgary in Northwest Canada; and J. E. Roman, representing from Fort Worth, Texas. Fageol is expected home tomorrow.

PACKARD TRUCKS GO TO NEVADA. W. Elliot Harvett, special road representative for Currier Inc., the Packard dealer, is again back to his headquarters in Oakland, with W. L. Hunsaker after a six-days' trip through the new mining country in Nevada. Harvett says he placed orders for five-ton Packard trucks with a contracting firm of Lovelock for service in hauling ore, lumber and general merchandise into the mining camps. Harvett, who has just recently been made representative for the Packard trucks in the territory of Nevada, Oregon and Northern California is an Oakland man, and is well versed in transportation problems.

SCHOOL DIRECTOR ADDRESSES CENTER

Miss Brown Tells of Reorganization of State Education Board.

(By EDMUND CRINNION.)

The Alameda County Colored American Civic Center held a largely attended meeting on Tuesday afternoon at California Hall. A program of interest was given. After a business meeting School Director Miss Anna Florence Brown was introduced as the principal speaker of the afternoon, and held the attention of the large audience by speaking of the reorganization of the State Board of Education, and also commenting upon several of the educational bills introduced at the adjourned session of the Legislature.

The center then suspended other matters and devoted a short space of time to commemorating the life of Abraham Lincoln in honor of his birthday. The biography of Lincoln was read by Mrs. C. F. Tichenor, and Lincoln's Gettysburg address was recited by Miss Myra Simmons.

R. F. Nash, who is representing the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, outlined the work of the organization in the East. A committee was appointed from the center to assist in organizing a northern branch of the association.

In the meeting which followed there was much discussion and many protests against the bills introduced at the Legislature to provide for separate schools, and the mass meeting which the center had previously planned on the question, but had temporarily abandoned pending investigation was unanimously voted to be held.

CONFESSION ENDS MYSTERY IN N. Y.

Chauffeur for Theatrical Man
Admits He Killed
Policeman.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—The mystery of the killing of Policeman Peter Fitzsimmons by an automobile at night in Central Park four months ago was cleared early this morning, according to the police, by confession from Robert Rothheim, a 29-year-old chauffeur for Felix Inman, a theatrical manager, that he drove the car which killed the officer.

Finger prints in blood on the body of the policeman, left by some one who had carried the body to the side of the driveway and tossed it into the undergrowth, served as a clue.

Detectives worked quietly for months on the case before suspicion fell upon Rothheim, but before arresting him they ran down finger prints found on his automobile, which, it was alleged, were identical with those on the policeman's body. When confronted with this evidence it is alleged Rothheim confessed.

Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to England, will be one of the special guests of honor.

TEST TRAIN MORE THAN MILE LONG

NEWTOWN, N. J., Feb. 14.—In making a test of the length of a train which it would be able to haul over the new cut-off of the Lackawanna railroad near here, a train of 132 loaded coal cars was sent yesterday from Stateford Junction to Port Morris. The train was more than a mile long with three locomotives pulling and two pushing it. The strong pull of the engines at the head of the line was too much for some of the couplings. They broke and caused long delays.

FIRE DESTROYS NUNNERY: SISTER SIMONE PERISHES

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 14.—Fire early this morning destroyed the nunnery of the scholastic of the Oblat Fathers, Ottawa East. Sister Simone, a nun, faintly while trying to escape and perished in the flames. Twelve other nuns were rescued by firemen.

Grip Germs Are Everywhere

The grip needs only a few days to wreck the health. In this short time it so thoroughly poisons the blood and every tissue of the body that the victim is prostrated. Every muscle and joint of the body aches, sleep is painful and disturbed, and there is pain back of the eyes and in the head. The grip stays in the system for years unless the blood is cleaned and built up so that it can overcome the poisons of the disease.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills taken in time will save you much suffering and will go to the very source of the trouble and clean up the system. You will enjoy the best of health. W. L. F. Williams, Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for their free booklet on "Building Up the Blood." Then go to your druggist and get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for 50 cents, or better still six boxes for $2.50, or order them direct by mail.

FISH BRINGS RECORD PRICES IN LENTEN MARKET

BOSTON, Feb. 14.—Fish dinners came high yesterday. Ice-beaten fishing vessels brought in such small catches that the Lenten market had record prices. Trout sold at $1.50 a hundred weight, the equivalent of a retail price of from 25 to 30 cents a pound. Bidding on the fish exchange was livelier than in years so great was the demand.

SCANDAL IS DROPPED FOR HONOR OF SERVICE

VALENTIA, Feb. 14.—Private advice from Washington states that the recent scandal on the gunboat Vicksburg, which resulted in a woman being carried off the ship unconscious at midnight, with her skull fractured, and both she and her husband being taken to the hospital, has been dropped. The honor of the service being the barrier that stopped further publicity.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE.

Don't Look Old Before Your Time

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make It Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion.

A Case in Point.

The untrustworthy character of much of the testimony offered in divorce cases has an apt illustration in the developments in the Howell case. On the stand a witness testified that he had taken Mrs. Howell, who had obtained an interlocutory decree, out to all-night restaurants and bought drinks for her in questionable resorts. Under cross-examination he broke down and confessed that he had been instigated by the attorney for the husband to swear away the rights and reputation of a woman.

We shall not undertake to say whether the witness lied in his testimony or his confession, but when a man takes the stand to give such testimony as this witness gave, his lack of shame discredits his veracity. He assumes an attitude that is counted dishonorable and contemptible in every civilized country.

In this case, the attorney whom the witness said employed him to commit perjury is not above reproach. He has been mixed up in previous scandals, and his standing at the bar is low. His record corroborates the confession of his witness, so far as the reputation of one man can corroborate the word of another.

The Bar Association should take the matter up and sift the evidence in the Howell case, and if it be found that the attorney has been guilty of dishonorable and unprofessional conduct disbarment proceedings should be instituted against him.

The unscrupulous client, the shyster lawyer, the private detective and the venal witness form an evil coalition; they are frequently found in combination, and the result of their machinations is the defeat of justice and the fouling of judicial process. Bribery and perjury are employed as instruments to defeat justice and destroy reputations. It is precisely the sort of skulduggery that brings the courts into contempt and the bar into discredit.

We have evidence manufactured to support immoral, unjust or predatory proceedings. The effect is as demoralizing to society as to the administration of the law. The courts and the bar have been too lenient with the crime of perjury and such offenses as barratry and subornation of perjury. The bar neglects its duty and the courts close their eyes to the most degrading practices, hence the law itself is falling into contempt. The amount of shysterism done with impunity is a disgrace to the jurisprudence of this State. Judicial reform should begin with an attack on this nefarious business. The bar needs to be purged, and the antecedents and morals of applicants for admission to the bar should be more carefully scrutinized.

There are practitioners in this city who are not only ignorant of the principles of law, but whose methods are essentially dishonest. They swindle their clients and prostitute judicial process to infamous ends. Hence such cases as the one presented by the developments in the Howell matter should be pursued by court and bar with a relentless determination to cleanse the bar and purify the administration of justice.

Woodrow Wilson refuses to be again saddled with the baptismal name Thomas given him when he was christened. As Woodrow Wilson he made himself a man of note, as Woodrow Wilson he was elected President, and now that he has been elected, why should he write himself Thomas Woodrow Wilson? Cleveland was baptized Stephen Grover Cleveland, but the Stephen was never signed to any state paper or any proclamation. To the American people he was Grover Cleveland. He refused to take up with Stephen after he became President, and his successor shows good sense by letting the superfluous Thomas stay in the discard.

The Value of Treaty Rights.

The Sacramento Bee is very much opposed to the United States intervening in Mexico, and argues that Americans residing in or visiting Mexico have no right to the protection of their government since they voluntarily placed themselves under Mexican jurisdiction. That is the only construction we can place on this extract from a lengthy editorial in the Bee dealing with the disturbed situation in the Southern republic:

"It is true that Americans in Mexico—and especially in the City of Mexico just now—are in more or less danger because of the civil strife. But they voluntarily took that risk when they entered the country, and the mere fact that they are exposed to peril from the bullets of the combatants is assuredly no occasion for an armed invasion of Mexico by the United States."

The doctrine laid down by our Sacramento contemporary would turn the clock of civilization back a thousand years. It would be a return to the usages of the feudal age, a reversion to the time when there was no such thing as international law and no principle of international comity.

Trade and travel are the couriers of progress and friendly intercourse between nations. By international agreement the different countries calling themselves civilized have engaged to protect foreigners traveling or trading within their borders in their lawful rights, their lives and property. Mexico has engaged to afford this protection. Asserting hegemony of the American continent, the United States has insured that engagement. The European nations have agreed to keep their hands off Mexico on condition that the United States protect the citizens of European countries in their treaty rights.

Mexico is not keeping her engagements—cannot keep them. She is torn by intestinal strife, and foreigners are deprived of the protection of the laws and divested of their property by confiscation or robbery. The governments of Europe are asking our government to afford their subjects the protection guaranteed them by treaty. Having gone bail for Mexico in this matter we must repudiate our bond or supply the protection that is denied.

We admit the situation is unfortunate, and we likewise admit that only extreme necessity will justify the United States in interfering in Mexico. Force is the very last recourse to which we should resort. But the United States is not altogether a free agent in this matter. If our government would maintain the Monroe Doctrine—or rather the strained construction that has been put upon that doctrine in recent years—it must live up to the obligations it entails. It can say that Mexico may abrogate the rights of trade and travel as far as American citizens are concerned, but it cannot say that European nations must acquiesce in the abrogation so far as their citizens are concerned.

We may be willing to let Mexico relapse into barbarism, but unfortunately we have become, voluntarily, a trustee for the interests of other nations. Can we afford to repudiate this fiduciary obligation?

The needs of modern civilization have compelled the powerful nations to extend a protecting arm over their citizens who trade or travel in other countries. Without such protection trade and travel would become unsafe and intercourse between peoples of the different countries would be thrown back into chaos. Fancy the condition of things if what is going on in Mexico were the rule in all countries—if the American citizen traveling or trading in England, France, Germany or Italy were subject to the same hazards foreigners in Mexico are at present subject to. Our citizens trade and travel in Mexico under precisely the same guarantees that they trade and travel in Europe. True, they go to Mexico voluntarily, but they go under guarantees that Mexico has given our government. They went to Mexico under a specific promise that their lives and property would be protected. That pledge has not been kept. Shall our government abandon its citizens who accepted it in good faith to plunder and ill usage? What are treaty rights worth if our government will not stand up for them?

SEEMS TO BE THE RIGHT MAN FOR THE JOB

It may be that the plans for the State highways now under construction are faulty. If so, they should be revised before it is too late. But this much is to be said—the public is not accustomed to look to contractors for protection in such matters. Still the dispute touches the pockets of the people so closely that the faults found by the contractors should be keenly scrutinized before the plans are carried out. The motives of the complaining contractors may not be entirely unselfish; but even so, the plans may be faulty. The first requisite of good roads is good plans; the second is to require the contractors to do the work in accordance with the specifications.

The Subsidy Argument.

It is rank casuistry to contend that allowing American ships engaged in the coasting trade to pass through the Panama canal toll-free is, in effect, granting a subsidy. Only a strained construction of terms will justify such a conclusion. Exemption from any impost becomes a subsidy under this construction. The objection to subsidies is that they usually tend to create monopolies or are discriminating—they favor special interests and handicap competition.

Remitting tolls on American ships engaged in the domestic trade encourages competition on equal terms, and discourages the transportation monopoly established by the railroads acting in combination. It is a privilege accorded all American coasting vessels passing through the canal; it is not discrimination because the grant is general and unlimited. One might say with equal truth that remitting the import duty on foreign hides is subsidizing the shoe manufacturers. Their industry is benefited by the abolition of an impost on their raw material, but it is a benefit enjoyed by all alike.

It does not tend to create a monopoly nor does it discriminate between beneficiaries. It is unlike the remission of canal tolls in one respect only—it inflicts some slight hardship on American cattle raisers while the remission of canal tolls does not injure any industry in any way.

If anybody is to benefit from the so-called subsidy it will be the producers, consumers, shippers and all persons who benefit by cheap freight rates.

The railroads only can complain, and their ground of complaint is that the remission of canal tolls will lower freight rates.

The weak point in the plan to provide the exposition facilities is that it will require a majority of the attendants to pay two fares instead of one. Passengers on the city lines cannot transfer to and from the lines owned by the United Railroads, and the city's lines do not ramify the municipality. The Harbor Commissioners will put in tracks along the waterfront from the ferry building to the fair grounds, but that will be mainly for the convenience of persons crossing the bay. It does not relieve the situation so far as the residential districts of the city are concerned, but it will to some extent overcome the handicap of visitors from the eastern shore of the bay who will be compelled to pay a street car fare in addition to a ferry fare—it will make the trip less roundabout than it would otherwise be.

WITTY BITS

"Don't pick up the baby when it cries," says Dr. Stewart Payton of Princeton. The answer, we presume, is to let your wife do it.

Good wine needs no bush, and a pretty girl requires not the mistletoe.

Another cause of the high cost of living is that the farmer boy who used to pull a plow now prefers to pull the bell rope in a street car.

The Y. M. C. A. reports that government clerks have a stronger grip than stone masons or laborers. They get that trying to hold on to their jobs.

A Pennsylvania policeman wrote his will in nine words, which will stand for some time as the world's record for the longest document ever written by a policeman.

HOW TO GET STRONG

A Simple Remedy

Weakness may be caused by a run down condition, mal-assimilation of food, lack of iron in the blood or a result of sickness.

Whatever the cause, we want to say to every person who needs strength, you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, as it is the most efficient strength creator we have in our store.

A case has just come to our attention from West Baden, Ind. A beautiful young lady was a complete wreck, run-down, worn out and nervous, so she had to spend a third of her time in bed. Nothing which was given her did any good until Vinol was recommended by her druggist, which she says did her more good than all the medicines she ever took in her life put together, as it built her up so she is now strong, well and active. It is the medicinal elements of the cod liver contained in Vinol, aided by the blood making and strengthening properties of tonic iron which makes it so successful and we will return your money if it does not help you. WILSON'S SMOKE AND OUR'S

Woodrow Wilson's confession that he smoked only once—and was so sick that one time he never will forget the experience, cannot but carry every adult user of the weed back to his own boyhood.

There isn't a devotee of "My Lady, Nicotine" in Seattle who cannot recall an incident of the same kind. The road to success in the habit has been paved with youthful sorrow and suffering.

In fact, if the average boy tried half so hard to do something which would mean the development of his future as he does to acquire the habit of smoking, he would decrease the time limit of his race for achievement by years.

Now, like President-elect Wilson, cease to pursue the habit after the first terrible experience. Few are so embittered against the burning weed that they decide never again to attempt its use. To the contrary, early failure spurs them on to other endeavors. The quains of an outraged stomach, the reeling or a tortured brain are disregarded with Spartan fortitude. But the memory never is eradicated.

It sticks with the man forever. He can recall, with pristine vividness, that terrible period of his youthful life, in which some of the old qualms to reappear for a moment, at least.

That is why Mr. Wilson's frank confession will strike a familiar note with every masculine reader. "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind"—and wondrous reminiscent.

Moreover, all will admit the keen humor of the next Chief Executive when in explaining why he had not cultivated the habit, he said: "You see, I never was forbidden to smoke and there wouldn't have been any point to do it."

Decidedly, the gentleman from New Jersey appears to possess that most vital of all political requisites—the saving gift of humor.—Seattle Times.

HEART TRIBUNE'S PAGE for WOMEN HOME

SOCIETY

A NUMBER of small and intimate affairs are filling the February days with pleasure for the maids and matrons of society, to whom a succession of large affairs are given more of a character of spirit than the exhilaration which they are meant to be. One grows tired, even with the most delightful of society events. After a large number of the more elaborate occasions, with their more or less similar trappings of decorations and catering, it is a relief to meet a few of one's friends at a simple and informal affair where the individual is more important than the elaborate surroundings. And after a run of that kind, one is always ready to enjoy a large reception or assembly with a vim engendered by the sense of novelty, which after all is the most enjoyable thing that a society affair can impart.

Among the charming small affairs taking place this week is Miss Elsie Farnum's card party for Miss Priscilla Hall Saturday, Miss Grace Layman's luncheon for Miss Stanton and Miss Hamilton today, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wade's dinner for Miss Madeline Clay and Warren Harrold last night, and Mrs. Channing Hall's luncheon for Miss Priscilla Hall yesterday. One of the larger society events will be the delightful dance at which Mrs. George C. Perkins will entertain for her granddaughters, Miss Ethel Perkins and Miss Alys Perkins-Smith tomorrow night.

LEAVE FOR COUNTRY HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bates left yesterday for a short trip to the J. R. Burnham country place in Sonoma county. After their stay there they will take an automobile trip southward through California as far as Colorado, where they will make their regular yearly visit. The trip to Colorado was planned for a month ago, but on account of a slight illness of Mr. Bates, was postponed until after the rainy season in the south.

DINNER AND THEATER PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wade entertained about a dozen friends with a dinner and theater party last night in honor of Miss Madeline Clay and her fiancé, Warren Harrold. It was an informal affair, taking place across the bay. Miss Clay is a charming girl who is being much feted during her engagement days.

HONOLULU HONEYMOON.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gardner left yesterday on the Hawaiian for a honeymoon trip to Honolulu, where they will spend several weeks. The marriage of Miss Dorothy Tisdale and Paul Gardner was a society event of the week at the Tisdale home in Alameda. After a short visit in the bay, they will return to the young couple will depart for the southern city, where they will establish their home.

TEA NEXT WEEK.

Miss Gertrude Adams has sent out cards for a large tea in honor of Miss Dorothy Capwell next Thursday afternoon. The affair will take place at the Adams home in Oakland avenue, and will be attended by a number of the younger members of the smart set.

LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE TODAY.

Miss Grace Layman entertained with a luncheon for about a score of the younger set today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Layman. Spring flowers decorated the attractive rooms of the home for the charming affair, which was in honor of two close friends of the hostess, Miss Vera Hamilton and Miss Marjorie Hamilton of San Francisco. Miss Layman is an old friend of the Layman family and formerly lived in Oakland. She is much entertained by her friends among the younger set upon the occasion of her frequent visits to the coast from her home in Pittsburg. The affair today was the dance of Arnold Weber of Berkeley.

The affair today is one of a series which Miss Layman is planning for the latter part of the season. Miss Elizabeth Latham will be among those honored at one of the post-Lenten affairs.

EASTERN TRAVELERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens and Miss Sallie Havens, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Egan, have left for New York, where they will stay a month or so. Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens are planning to leave for the East shortly on a visit of two or three months.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

An interesting announcement was made at the Valentine party at which Miss Eileen Van Pelt entertained in honor of Miss Adele Welch and Miss Esther Church today, when the news of the pretty young hostess' engagement to R. Bladell Bernard was told to the circle of friends. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Pelt of Peralta Heights, and is a charming girl with artistic and musical talent. Bladell Bernard is a grandson of the late Governor Bernard and is now manager of the Niles Timber Company. No date has been set for the wedding. About forty friends enjoyed the card party at which the announcement was made by means of water-color valentines painted by Miss Van Pelt, in which the photographs of the prospective bride and groom were attached, and which were used as place-cards at the tea tables.

Tea was served on the sun-porch, where the decorations of hearts and cupid with spring blossoms were in keeping with the Valentine season. In the reception rooms the color scheme was pink, dainty blossoms being largely used. Miss Van Pelt looked charming in a gown of pink charmeuse made en traine and trimmed with silver lace.

DANCE AT SEQUOIA CLUB.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

RUSSIAN BEAUTIES ARE HUBBY'S UNDOING

Doctor Was Sentimental Once in a While, Alleges His Wife.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—That Dr. Charles F. D. Lord of San Francisco, who is suing his wife, Annie I. Lord, for divorce, was guilty of indiscreet conduct with Mrs. Fannie Phils, known in New York as the Russian Widow, and that as a result of the entanglement he was dismissed from the United States army as surgeon, was a counter charge made in an amended answer and cross complaint filed yesterday by Mrs. Lord. Mrs. Lord asks that her husband's suit be denied and that she be allowed $100 a month and the custody of two children who are now with her in Old Orchard, Me.

The Lords married at Biddeford, Me., January 9, 1904. Dr. Lord charged that his wife deserted him on November 15, 1904. This is denied by Mrs. Lord in her amended answer filed by Attorney Henry G. W. Dinkelspiel and John R. Jones.

A copy of a letter which the defendant is alleged to have written to his mother is contained in the amended complaint. In it the writer avows an infatuation for Mrs. Phils, whom he asserts to be "one of the most beautiful women I have ever seen."

Spouse Took Coin

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Mrs. G. A. Phillips asked the police yesterday to search for her husband, who, she says, has disappeared with $4000 belonging to her. They were married in San Francisco less than two weeks ago and arrived in Chicago last Tuesday. Yesterday Phillips left the Smith Michigan avenue rooming house where they were staying, with $4000 belonging to his wife and $5000 of his own, telling her he was going to deposit the money in a bank.

Drugged, He Says

SEATTLE, Feb. 14.—Eight days after marriage, Dr. Philip Rexford Vaughan, who became the husband of Miss Nellie Kloss, his former nurse, over the protest of friends, who said he was drugged and did not know what he was doing, recovered his mental balance and now wants to be free. He alleges this in a divorce complaint filed yesterday by Attorney Walker A. Keene. Vaughan was a friend of the bride, who is superintendent of the Queen City Sanitarium, where he was a patient for weeks.

Jewels Stolen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—A sneak thief stole $20,000 worth of gems from the hotel apartments of Miss Ethel Barrymore on Monday, while the actress and her maid were at the theater. Many of the jewels were wedding gifts or presents from her husband, Russell Colt.

Among the missing articles is a heart-shaped pendant of platinum, with a diamond chain. This emerald, formerly the property of the Borgia family, is an inch long, with two tiny poison coils, and across its center is a row of diamonds set on a platinum band.

Among other articles taken are her engagement ring, a plain gold band set with diamonds very close together all the way round, a bracelet watch of four strands of pearls and diamonds holding a watch and a blue enamel and diamond pendant watch, the gift of Mrs. John Drew.

News of the theft did not become public until today. Detectives discovered that the rooms were opened with a pass key.

WOMAN CONVICTED OF BIGAMY SENTENCED

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 14.—An indeterminate sentence of from three to five years in the State prison at Stillwater was given to Mrs. Lola Pierce-Rothe-Berg in District Court here today. The woman was convicted of bigamy Tuesday. She is alleged to have married Union Rothe of Des Moines, Iowa, September 11, 1912, and Frank Berg in Minneapolis two months later, while her first husband, William Pierce, of Seattle, still was living, she had never been divorced from Pierce.

Miss Elsie Farnum is planning to entertain a group of friends in honor of Miss Hall tomorrow, and Miss Elva Ghrardell has sent out cards for a bridge party to be given at her Piedmont home Monday, February 24. She will ask about a score of the younger belles to be her guests for the day. GIRLS WHO FARM

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

Copyright, 1912, by Lillian Russell

WE have a new woman in Miss Elsie Scheele, who is a co-ed of Cornell College.

This new woman is studying horticulture. And when her college days are over she is going to work at raising vegetables on her father's farm on Long Island. A splendid and worthy business for a woman.

At the same time it is not a new business for a woman. For in all countries where the men are obliged to serve their time in the army the women have done most of the farming and have raised their families at the same time.

The American girl who is taking a college education with the view of becoming an expert farmer is described as weighing 170 pounds, is 5 feet 7 inches in height, her waist is 30 inches and her hips measure 40 inches. A fine figure for perfect health and beauty. A veritable Juno.

If girls would realize that a squeezed in, thin waist is hideous, as well as worthless, quite as useless as a squeezed and narrow brain; if they could realize that narrow flat hips are abnormal, and opposed to the improvement of the human race, the realization would be the cause of their improvement.

Women in business and women out of business must never lose sight of the fact that they are chosen by the Creator to create the human race. And they should be proud of the fact and never resent it.

Women not only create humanity but they have the power to better it as they go along by giving to the children, both boys and girls, their superior moral character and their goodness.

This out-of-door life which Miss Scheele has chosen for herself will insure her health enough for herself and many children; vitality enough to keep her always cheerful and happy; fatigue enough to compel her to do her own thinking.

Independence enough to find a husband of her own choice, regardless of any mercenary interests. Beauty enough to enhance her home and surroundings.

In fact, she is assuming to be a model to her sex. A model that could be followed by a raft of unemployed daughters of the rich much to their improvement.

Remember: Occupation, whether farming or miniature painting, cannot but be beautiful and improve women.

SULZER'S WINDOWS DECIDE ASTOR

Millionaire to Start Scientific Farm for Benefit of the Farmer.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 13.—"Vincent Astor recently spent the night at the People's House," said Governor Sulzer, "and we talked over many things. He wanted to get my views and advice as to how he could be a useful man in the progress of the world."

"I told him he was living in a house with only one window, that he was looking out of that window every day and his views consequently were limited and contracted. I said, 'You have come to me for advice and my views; I am going to put nine windows in your house. You can look out of each of these windows with me and you will get a greater perspective. After you have looked out of all the windows, selected the view you like best, and the field wherein you think you can be the most useful, and then go to work and do something for your fellow man."

"He spent some time looking out of these windows and he didn't seem to take much interest in any of them until I went to the agricultural window, and the moment he looked out of that he said: 'That is my field; that is what I would like to do. I have one of the finest farms in the state of New York down along the Hudson river. My father never did anything with it. I am going to make that farm an experimental farm along scientific lines and everything I do there will be told to the people of the country.'"

"Mr. Astor is a very intelligent young man. He means well and wants to do real things. He has good sense and good ideas. He is not going to waste his life. He wants to do something beneficial for humanity and he now thinks agricultural development is his true field of endeavor."

Chinese Ports Have Big Trade

Foreign Concessions Cause of New Roads and Improvements.

(By Consul General Samuel S. Knabenshue.)

The foreign concessions at Tientsin all had very large concessions to their Chinese population in 1911. As soon as the revolutionary outbreak began, the Chinese from Peking and from the native city of Tientsin flocked into the concessions. There were many vacant buildings, especially in the Japanese concession, which were speedily packed with refugees, the rentals thus being greatly enhanced. A number of prominent Chinese purchased fine residences in the German and British concessions. And another factor in the demand for houses was the requirements of the officers of the various military forces sent to Tientsin. The result was a rapid building of new residences in the concessions.

In the German concession new roads were built on the area formerly covered by a pond, which was filled in by dredging from the river. A tanning establishment was erected, as well as many new residences and number of residences and warehouses (godowns) were added to the British and French concessions, and the French also erected a new electric-light plant. The Russian municipality built a new railway station, and there are a number of the new residences in this concession also. The Standard Oil company erected a very large oil-storage plant at the extreme end of this concession, facing the river, which there is a railway siding from the Peking-Mukden Government railway.

Undue Influence Used, is Charge

Mental Weakness of Glorvina Black Traded on, is Allegation.

Alleging among other things that Stella M. Handy traded upon the mental weakness of Glorvina Black in her dealings and induced her to sign over certain property valued at $3,000, which Mrs. Black already had decided over to the plaintiff, Dorothy D. Black, who sued against the executor of Mrs. Black's estate, Willard W. White, and against Stella M. Handy and H. H. Handy, to quiet title to the property involved.

The plaintiff states in her complaint that she was taken into the home of Glorvina Black when a very young child, too young to remember the occasion, and lived there until she had arrived at the age of 15. Then she returned to the home of one of her parents in Pittsburg, where she lived until 1911 when Glorvina Black asked her to come back and take care of her. It was then that the gift of the property was brought up and she alleged a life estate in the property was transferred to her. Later she alleges her friend gave her a deed to the property, but neglected to record this deed, and subsequently it was lost.

The plaintiff further alleges that in September, 1912, Stella M. Handy procured from Glorvina Black to give her a document which is purported to be a deed, and which was acknowledged before a notary public, but the plaintiff states that Glorvina Black's mental weakness was used by Stella Handy to secure this document. Plaintiff also alleges that her services to Glorvina Black are valued at $2,000.

Mexicans Prove Fond of 'Movies'

Business Grows Rapidly; the Natives Demand Best Class of Films.

(By Consul Wilbert L. Bonney, San Luis Potosi.)

The motion-picture business here, established eight years ago, has grown both in popularity and quality. Prior thereto the drama was for the wealthier classes only. The demand for pictures of artistic merit is recent. For example, Christmas week "Les Miserables" films were shown, while the "Inferno" and "Aida" were recently exhibited.

It is interesting to note the effect of these films upon the great number of people here who get their first introduction to fiction, drama and art in the graphic manner. It is often difficult otherwise to know what the people think or what their preferences are. By simply throwing the picture of a prominent individual on the curtain, the public preference is immediately and unmistakably demonstrated. Audiences here are demonstrative. Until the cheap motion pictures appeared it is probable that 50 per cent of the people had never witnessed a dramatic performance of any character.

The future of the business here depends upon the development of the film business itself. Any improvements will be quickly taken up. The people are not much interested in views of their own country; even the battle of Bachima did not draw well here. They prefer foreign work and action. Bull-fights here do not take well. In fact, I am inclined to believe that the motion picture entertainments are encroaching upon the bull fights in public interest, but the recent failure of the latter may be due to other causes.

Crockett, Miss Jeanie Hooker, Mrs. William S. Tevis and her three sons, a congenial party who have recently made their advent in the canal zone.

Mrs. Marie Walton, who recently announced the engagement to Marshall D. Rach, will be the guest of honor at a dinner party at which Mrs. Frederick Zelle will preside this evening at her apartments in "The Kitterton."

Among other San Franciscans who are at present viewing the world's eighth wonder are Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hendricks. The Hendricks stopped on route at New Orleans, where they attended at the Mardi Gras festivities.

Mrs. George Kelham has come out from New York to spend the summer with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelham, whose home in Pierce street has been the scene of several informal entertainments in her honor.

Mrs. Jams Parker, Mrs. Lawrence Kaufman, Miss Edith Rucker, Miss Nell Rauch and Miss Edith Rauch were among others who dined aboard the U. S. S. California last evening as the guests of Major Chas. Hill of the U. S. M. C.

Mr. and Mrs. William Spronke are en route to California in their private car. The Spronkes have been in New York for the past few weeks, and will carry a white in Canada before continuing on their way westward.

One of the groups about a tea table at the Hotel St. Francis yesterday was headed by Mrs. Edw. Thompson. Others in the party were Mrs. Mary Thompson Deady, Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. J. B. Correll and Mrs. Augusta Delp, who has recently arrived from Portland with the intention of visiting in San Francisco for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Jones have come over from San Rafael to spend the early part of the winter here. They are a well known family in the Hillcrest.

Liberator Editor Will Assist in Mylius Case

EDWARD HOLTON JAMES.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Edward Holton James, the editor of the Liberator, has arrived in the United States to assist Edward Mylius, who is held up for deportation by the immigration authorities. It was the Liberator that published Mylius' story that King George had been married morganatically to the daughter of Admiral Culme. Mylius was tried for this in England and it is his conviction in this case which is given as the reason for excluding him from the United States.

James is here to convince the authorities that Mylius' crime was merely political. James was obliged to prove his American citizenship before he was allowed to land. He is a nephew of Henry James, the novelist, and lives in Paris. He said on landing that he still believed the story of King George's marriage.

Predicts Victory for the Greeks

Professor Putzker of State University Pays High Tribute to Turks' Foe.

BERKELEY, Feb. 14.—Ultimate Greek and Balkan defeat of the Turkish armies and the consequent beginning of a better era for those oppressed nations was predicted by Emeritus Professor Albin Putzker of the University of California, German Department, in an address last evening at the California Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. The address was interpreted in the sign manual for the deaf and dumb students by H. E. O'Donnell, an instructor in the deaf department.

A large audience listened to Professor Putzker. The speaker has spent several years of residence in Greece and the neighboring countries, where war is now progressing, and drew his illustrations from recent events of those countries.

"I cannot pay too high a tribute to the character of the Greeks," said the speaker. "They have been abused, persecuted and tortured for the past 3000 years, but continue to face their oppressors with the same stalwart courage of past years. This outbreak is not a sudden matter. It has been brewing for many years. It has been several times on the point of effervescence."

Over Greece in this country has reflected the admiration of his fellow-countrymen at home. When he could, he has gone back to his home land to bear the burden of war. When he could not, he has remained here and contributed to the limit of his financial ability to the cause.

PREDICTS TRIUMPH.

"What the outcome of the present struggle will be, who can say? I am certain that ultimately the Greek cause will triumph. Victory may not come in the present struggle, but finally it will."

"The Turks are a decadent nation. They are remaining in the same state of arrested development that marked the nation of the mediæval age. Constantinople is a city without telephones, without electric lights. Its inhabitants have not had enough energy, enough progress, to keep it clean. Conditions within its walls are quite indescribable in a mixed audience."

Auto Specifications Not Given Council

ALAMEDA, Feb. 14.—The proposition of submitting specifications for an auto tractor to be used in drawing truck No. 1 of the local fire department, and about which there has been so much discussion, will probably not come up before the city council at its committee session this evening, as up to this time the commission has not submitted the specifications asked for by the council, and does not seem inclined to do so.

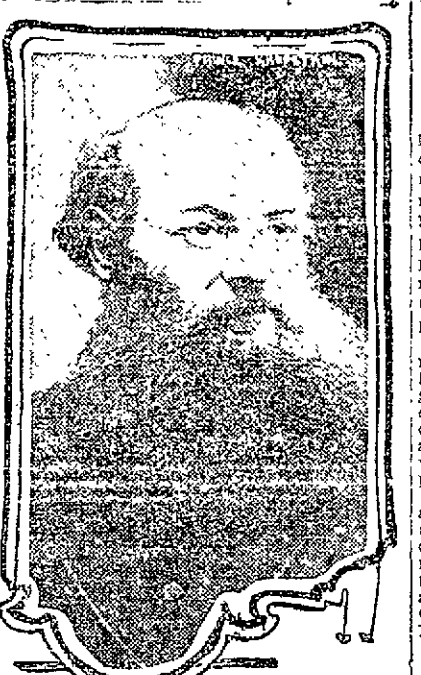

At the regular meeting of the Council Councilman E. J. Trobst protested vigorously against the actions of the committee in sidetracking the request of the council to draw up and submit the specifications. On his motion the city clerk was instructed to again communicate with the commission to "hurry them up," as the councilman explained.

The facts of the matter are that the specifications have already been drawn up, but the commission has not submitted them to the council, as the item of a tractor was pruned out of the budget last submitted by the department.

Royal Nihilist Is Seriously Ill, Say His Physicians

PRINCE PETER KROPOTKIN.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—It is reported that Prince Peter Kropotkin is very ill. He is the most distinguished Nihilist in the world. Born of an aristocratic family, he began the study of social conditions and soon found himself at odds with the governing class. He openly preached revolution in Russia and for this was sent to the Peter-Paul dungeon in St. Petersburg. Escaping from his imprisonment he went to Switzerland. That country did not like his revolutionary ideas any better than did his own country and, at the request of Russia, expelled him. Then he went to France and was arrested with Louise Michel and others and sentenced to prison. After serving for three years he came to London, where at last he found a refuge. In the scientific world he is known as a geographer. He has always remained a Nihilist.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 14.—It was generally reported about the city hall and on Park street this morning that Charles W. Neal, son of Charles S. Neal, would be a candidate for city auditor and assessor against Auditor and Assessor Fred J. Crab. Neal's family is well known in this city, where his father has been located for many years.

Charles S. Neal was formerly manager of the Fair estate. He is now heavily interested in the Alameda National and Alameda Savings banks and in numerous real estate and other property investments.

May Get Probation

BERKELEY, Feb. 14.—J. T. Ashley, arrested in the act of robbing a telephone box at the Southern Pacific Station, waived preliminary examination in Judge Edgar's court this morning and asked to be held over to the superior court. Ashley told a pathetic story of coming to this coast from the East, seeking work in vain and finally selling his suitcase and all his clothes but those he wore to purchase food. He is suffering from an incurable disease. Deputy District Attorney Walter J. Burpee will investigate his case with a view to possible probation.

Discuss Plans of Inner Harbor

Chamber of Commerce Hears From Congressman Knowland on Survey.

BERKELEY, Feb. 11.—Berkeley's proposed water front improvements received serious consideration at last night's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors, the committee on harbor and transportation submitting a report showing the progress in this important matter. It was made clear that more thoughtful attention is being given to this subject at present than at any previous time.

Congressman Knowland's letter was read in which he stated that the preliminary survey and testing of the ground formation of the district, in order to determine the probable cost of development, had been referred to the proper authorities in Washington, and that he would attempt to have the needed funds provided for carrying on the work.

Chairman T. J. Fallon of the harbor and transportation committee, stated that four plans for water front development have been referred to the committee, and that all of them will be given full investigation. The four propositions are those originated by Charles Green, Chas. Brainerd, J. J. Jessup, Robert W. Beattie and Allan C. Rush.

Berkeley Society

BERKELEY, Feb. 14.—The tea given yesterday at the Shattuck hotel by the Berkeley Civic center of the California Civic league, called out a large and enthusiastic company of representative women of Berkeley.

This meeting was called by the women of the league to take advantage of the interim of our legislative procedure to scrutinize bills that have been introduced at the first sitting of the assembly, and which will be enacted into laws as reflected at the second session of that body.

The local legislators of Berkeley were invited to be present at the tea. Assemblyman C. C. Young and George Geller sent regrets at not being able to be present. Senator E. Bred and gave most valuable information concerning legislative methods and bills now before the assembly. His quick and timely response to the many questions which were hurled at him was the most illuminating part of his talk.

WOULDN'T SIGN, IS ARRESTED

First Violation of New Hotel and Lodging House Law Is Reported.

Because H. F. Goddard, a messenger, declined to sign his name on the register of a lodging house at 486 Tenth street, the police decided to register him at the municipal lodging house with headquarters under the city hall, and his name was placed on the police docket and the police court calendar. Goddard was the first to be arrested under the new lodging house ordinance which provides that:

We All Eat Too Fast!

We all do, more or less, but the worst feature of fast eating is the unavoidable swallowing of air with the food. Is it any wonder, then, that after a few mouthfuls of food, or after a meal, you feel bloated, uncomfortable and nervous? Fast eating is, to a great extent, nervousness, or rather the craving of the stomach nerves for a quick supply of food, and Baalman's Gas-Tablets are a typical specific for this undue craving of the nerves which results in eating too fast.

Baalman's Gas-Tablets cannot make you eat slower, but through their direct action on the excited gastric nerves calm the craving stomach and relieve you of the swallowed air, stomach gas and its bad effects. These peculiar tablets are sold for 50 cents by all druggists, but insist on getting the genuine in a yellow carton.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Efforts of old established transportation lines to drive out independent traffic to and from Southwestern ports, were described to the House shipping trust investigators today by H. H. Maline, traffic manager of the Galveston Commercial Association. Mr. Maline testified that at one time water rates were so low that a carload of axes from Alton, Ill., were sent to Houston, Tex., by way of New York and Galveston, finding that roundabout route cheaper.

MEASURES PILE

UP IN CONGRESS

Appropriation Bills Worry the Leaders of Lower House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—With half a dozen of the main appropriation measures piled up for action and the aggregate of appropriations threatening to run far over the billion mark, the House leaders find two plans available. Either the appropriation bills, as framed with their increased totals, must be rushed through in the few remaining days of the session or the House must go on record as being unable to complete its work and allow the appropriation bills to go over until the special session.

Neither course is taken as fully agreeable. In the face of this dilemma the leaders are demanding that before the next House settles down to make its appropriations a system be evolved to provide for the division of available public funds to the various purposes for which money must be expended.

Representative Fitzgerald, chairman of the appropriations committee; Representative Shirley of Kentucky, former Speaker Cannon and Minority Leader Mann are among those who insist that reform is necessary.

The economy advocates on the Democratic side of the House were active today and made the $146,000,000 annual appropriation bill their special object of attack. Opponents of a large navy, following a series of conferences, were prepared to attack the two battleship provision of the bill and there were many threats of filibusters to prevent its passage at this session.

PLAN TO COLLECT FUNDS ENDORSED

Civic Association to Aid Taxation Investigators.

The campaign of the Alameda County Tax Association to collect $50,000 from 50,000 people for use in employing experts to collect the data needed for the Charter Committee was endorsed by the Alameda County Civic Association at its meeting last night. Its members pledged their individual support to the campaign.

The Civic Association as a body voted to endorse the tentative plan of the Tax Association in so far as it applies to the adoption of a new county charter, leaving the details of that instrument and assessment alterations for future consideration.

It is planned to take up each section of the charter which the Tax Association's Charter Committee may recommend and discuss it fully and endorse or reject it only after it has been considered and acted on by the improvement clubs and other organizations of which the Civic Association is composed.

Dr. Carl Walther's proposal to alter the election and registration laws in a way that will save $25,000 at each election in the county was submitted in a communication from the Galindo Improvement Club. Walter Walker of the Merchants' Exchange objected to it being accepted on the ground that it was a matter of politics. It was referred to the executive committee for future discussion. The Civic Association was organized primarily to assist in a general movement to reduce expenses in the county.

Deputy Assessor J. C. Jendemark exhibited the first of a series of assessment valuation maps which the County Assessor's office is preparing for general distribution. Such a system of maps was one of the principal reforms for which the organization has been working for many months.

To complete the plan make it all that the association desires, necessary to have passed a legislative act empowering the assessor to expend more money than is now allowed him. Assessor Jendemark and members of the association will confer with the Alameda County Legislative delegation within a few days on the details of this act and it is to be introduced when the second half of the session begins.

HARBORS BILL IS READY FOR SENATE

Numerous Amendments Tacked to Measure While in Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—After adding numerous amendments, the Senate Committee on Commerce concluded today its consideration of the Rivers and Harbors Appropriation bill, and that measure will be reported to the Senate by Senator Nelson, chairman of the committee. As it will be presented to the Senate the bill will carry an aggregate of $46,572,958, which is an increase of $5,700,000 over the amount carried by the bill as it passed the House on the old project. The bill is expected to pass the Senate by a vote of 75 to 25.

Among the more important additions to the appropriation are:
Providence, River and Harbor, R. L. $227,000, of which amount $100,000 is for the improvement of the lower Mississippi; North River Channel, New York Harbor, $450,000, $200,000 cash; channel from Galveston Harbor to Texas City, $1,600,000, $500,000 cash; San Diego Harbor, California, $338,000, for a new project in addition to the $25,000 allowed by the House on the old project; Tillamook Bay, Oregon, $307,000, $100,000 cash; the appropriation being made upon the condition that the localities benefited shall contribute $407,000; Columbia River from the foot of The Dalles rapids to the head of Zedillo Falls, $600,000.

No increase was made in the House appropriation of six million dollars for the improvement of the lower Mississippi, but Senator Burton's provision regarding the examination of the upper part of the river was adopted with modification.

Mississippi River Commission directs the examination of the streams between Cape Girardeau, Mo., to Rock Island, Ill., with a view to such improvements as will promote navigation, develop water power, protect property adjacent to the river from damage by flood. One hundred thousand dollars is provided for this work.

RETURNS FROM TOUR OF GLOBE; OBTAINS RELICS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—Adolph Mack, retired business man of this city, for twenty-five years the head of Mack & Co., wholesale druggists, and formerly president of the City Electric Company, returned yesterday from an extended tour of the world, covering 150,000 miles. Since leaving here in June, 1911, Mack has visited practically every quarter of the globe, including England, Russia, Greece and the other countries of Europe; Japan, China and all the points of interest in the Far East. By way of India and Ceylon, he went up to Egypt and the Holy Land and to Damascus; thence to Greece again, and passing through London, journeyed to Morocco, and through the Mediterranean and Red Sea to Aden. From the Arabian port he went to Mombassa and covered South Africa extensively.

During his stay at Port Arthur, Mack obtained interesting relics of the Russo-Japanese war for the Golden Gate Park Memorial Museum. He was much impressed by the colonization policy exemplified by the United States in the Philippines and in Panama.

"All over the world," he said, "I found that the people are looking with admiration at the work Americans are doing at the Panama Canal."

Boys Carry Banner and Give "Siss. Boom Ah" Yell.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J., Feb. 14.—More than 100 students of Lawrenceville Academy and the surrounding district, when they entered the suffragette parade from Princeton, N. J., carried a banner for "Siss. Boom Ah" and had a yell for the occasion that went like this: "Siss. Boom Ah."

Officials Indicted As Bribe Receivers

Delegates and One Senator in West Virginia Face Charges.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 14.—The special grand jury announced by Judge Henry K. Black to consider the charges of bribery in connection with the 1912 Senatorial campaign this afternoon returned six indictments. The indicted are Delegates David Hill, H. F. Ashurst, C. S. Rhodes, Rath Duff and Senator B. A. Smith. The men were charged with having feloniously received bribes for their votes in the 1912 Senatorial campaign. The exact charge was not made public.

The men indicted today were arrested last Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Hill in the presence of Prosecutor Twohig, and after they had come to a room, in which it was alleged they had each been paid for voting for a given candidate for U. S. Senator. The indicted money, it was alleged, was found in their pockets.

Identity of Vessel Washed Ashore Known

NEHALEM, Ore., Feb. 14.—The identity of the vessel ashore on North Spit, at the entrance to this bay, was established this morning. It is the German bark Mimi, which was wrecked on the beach of the spit. The Mimi is lying on its side. Heavy seas are running, but there is little or no wind.

The life-saving crew got a line aboard the Mimi this morning, but its crew, with the exception of one man, refused to leave the vessel. The ship probably will be a total loss. It lies so far up on the beach that it will be high and dry at low tide and the men aboard can walk ashore.

TOWLE TO PREFACE DRASTIC ORDINANCE

Building Inspector J. H. Towle is preparing amendments to the present building ordinances to regulate the construction of cheap buildings and give the city the power to prevent the construction of mushroom buildings by speculators in connection with the "Korea Fair." RECOMMENDS DELAY IN PASSING BILLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—In a speech attacking the appropriations of the Democrats, Representative Rodenberry told the House today that the congested mass of appropriation bills should be allowed to fall. He recommended that the bills go over until the next Congress, when they could be cut by the Democrats in charge of all branches of the government. Mr. Rodenberry promised, if no concerted action were taken, to do all in his power to prevent their passage.

JOB HARRIMAN DENIES FRANKLIN'S STATEMENT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—Job Harriman, formerly associated with Clarence S. Darrow in the defense of the McNamara brothers, continued on the witness stand today at the trial on a jury bribery charge of the former chief counsel for the dynamiters. Harriman denied many statements made by Bert H. Franklin, the McNamara defense detective, who confessed to having bribed jurors in the trial of James B. McNamara and declared he had done so at Darrow's instigation.

GRIZZLY BEAR RIVALS EAGLE

Creation of a civic art commission to pass upon the esthetic value of a grizzly bear and the American eagle as decorations for electroliners on Twelfth street was advocated by Mayor Frank K. Mott today. F. Sinclair had appeared to ask permission to have a grizzly bear rampant as the decoration on the Twelfth street lamp post.

"Most of our electroliners and our fire and police alarm boxes are decorated with eagles," objected Mayor Mott. "There should be uniformity in our municipal art."

"The seal of the city of Oakland has a large horn dog as big as an elephant sitting in De Fremery Park," commented Commissioner Harry S. Anderson. "A horn dog couchant might be a good emblem on the electroliners."

"A bureau of aesthetics might settle these matters," said the Mayor. "I think I will evade one."

"You might assign that as one of the duties of the purity commission," murmured Baccus, "then they could pass on our statutory before it is put up."

Despite the fact that the city has many conflicting artistic decorations, the council failed to follow the Mayor's suggestion and granted the grizzly bear petition for Twelfth street.

LEGISLATORS HAVE FISTIC BATTLE

Encounter Follows Contest in House Over Naming of Committees.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 14.—Nine hours of battling in the House yesterday to deprive the Speaker of the right to name the House members of the Steering Committee, culminated at 10 o'clock last night in a fist fight between Senator Fred Whiteside of Flathead, who had been active all afternoon and evening on the floor of the House, and Representative Lovelace of Park County, one of the leaders of the majority, which sought to shear the Speaker of his power.

After several blows had been exchanged, the men were separated and as a dozen angry members rushed toward him, Whiteside was forcibly ejected from the floor of the House.

The fight came after a compromise had been offered as to the personnel of the Steering Committee. Speaker Jordan sitting in De Fremery Park, commented Commissioner Harry S. Anderson. "A horn dog couchant might be a good emblem on the electroliners."

"A bureau of aesthetics might settle these matters," said the Mayor. "I think I will evade one."

Despite the fact that the city has many conflicting artistic decorations, the council failed to follow the Mayor's suggestion and granted the grizzly bear petition for Twelfth street.

New Book of Knowledge For Home and Office

THE TRIBUNE, like every progressive newspaper, is always on the alert to please its present readers and to attract new ones. It deems nothing more desirable and useful for the New Year than a new Book of Ready Reference to give you the late information not contained in your library, however extensive it may be, and to give it to you quickly for use in reading or study—a book equally interesting and instructive to the professional and business man, the farmer, the housewife and to help the young folks find out about things.

Opens Up a Mine of Facts

In more than one respect it differs from, and is superior to, all other similar works.

For example, no other contains such a complete gazetteer of the cities and countries of the world; no other presents such satisfying articles on such timely subjects as the Panama Canal, the United States Forest Service, the Conservation of National Resources, the Initiative, Referendum and Recall, while in the matter of World Maps it leads all books of its kind.

Furthermore, a very strong feature will be found in the special articles of interest to farmers—also to builders.

In short, those in all professions, occupations, employments and trades will find that the work

Tiedemann Arrives in Oakland and Reports to Manager Mitze Claire Patterson in Need of Assistance; Benefit Game Suggested

STOCKTON SPORTS WILL BACK FAVORITE TONIGHT

Heavy Wagers Laid on the Chances of White to Beat McFarland.

By THE TIMEKEEPER.

Stockton sports came trooping down to this part of the country by the carload this afternoon ready to back Herb White, lightweight idol, across the boards in his four-round skirmish tonight in Pavilion Rink with Tommy McFarland, the four-round prince regent.

There are some who can not see White, but the Stockton boy manages to get by very frequently, witness his decision verdict over McFarland once more and then over Red Watson the last time out.

"Red Sammy" McFarland is authority for a wire that white will be backed by $50,000 dollars in real even tonight. The money has been put up by Stockton business men and sports who are confident that they are not taking too great a chance against the conqueror of Willie Hoppe. Tonight will tell the story.

The spectators expect Charlie Horn and Porky Flynn looks like a real main attraction. These two heavyweights are not dubs by any means, and if they were going over the 10 round or derby route, the bout would command State attention. Tim McGrath will go after bigger game for Horn, if the Sox Valley heavyweight gets by the Boston man.

The balance of the card:

After Two Good Ones

"Rawhide" Kelly is here with one eye on Frankie Burns and the other hand fastened on the purse. Kelly is a firm believer in Frankie Burns and is going to back him in the fight with the Oakland lightweight by means of a managerial contract for a year or more. He and Burns had a long conference yesterday and it is possible that Kelly may decide to enter into a partnership with Kelly. Kelly has his own ideas on how a fighter should be handled and has demonstrated more than once that his ideas were correct.

"If Burns will agree to place himself in my hands," said Kelly to the writer, "I am positive that I can start him upward again. We all know that he can fight, and he is same old Kelly, all color and fire, and he has the same conditions and a change in the system of training.

Murphy and Wolcott have both been beaten and beaten hard, but they are championship timber today and still in the public eye.

But he has promised to give Kelly an answer in a day or two. Kelly's whole life has been devoted to handling fighters and he is a keen student of the game and a good one of personalities and how to handle them.

FIRST YEAR OARSMEN ARE NAMED FOR CLASS REGATTA

(By MARSHALL EVANS.)

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb.
14.—Captain Arthur Eaton of the 1912
varsity crew at the University of California, announced today the lineup of the freshmen eight which will contest in the interclass regatta on the Oakland estuary tomorrow morning. The other three crews, namely the senior, junior and sophomore, were named by their respective captains several days ago, but the selection of the first year oarsmen was deferred as long as possible on account of the greater competition for places on the 1913 eight. The relative abilities of the candidates for the "babies" eight have been less well known than those of the other classes and thus the matter of selection has been a more difficult proposition, requiring as much preliminary study as any allowed.

Much interest in tomorrow's races is being manifested by the rowing enthusiasts at Berkeley. This is the first competitive event of the year, and for that reason alone would cause considerable attention to be directed toward the regatta. Another item contributes to the excitement over the race this season, however, and this is the new stroke which has been adopted by the Berkeley oarsmen. All of the class eights have discarded the use of the old sweep and have placed the new style in its stead.
The latter is very different from its predecessor, and much practice has been required for the attainment of its present efficiency. The real test of the new sweep comes tomorrow, however, and the ad (coxswain).

results are the cause of considerable speculation. It is the confident opinion of those well versed in rowing matters that the present style is far superior to the old, and consequently the university public is faithfully behind the oarsmen in their efforts toward making the innovation a success.

The competition tomorrow will be conducted in two three-cornered races. The senior, junior and sophomore eights will go over the course in the first contest, and the first two to finish will then be pitted against the freshmen for final honors. The initial race will start at 9:30 o'clock and the second will follow at about 11.

The course is about one and three-quarters miles in length, and extends from a point west of the Park street bridge to the finish line at that bridge.

The following are the official lineups
for the various crews:
Senior—Eaton (stroke), Northrup 7,
Lyons 6, Craig 5, Hallberg 4, Blake 3,
Young (coxswain) 2, Bridge (bow), Coombs (coxswain).

Junior—Shaw (stroke), Denman (captain) 7, Chilton 6, Georgeson 5, Feich 4, Cordes 3, Reynolds 2, Brown (bow),
Hutton (coxswain).

Sophomore—Davis (stroke), Morehead
7, Hallner (captain) 6, Williams 5, Wilson 4, Pratt 3, H. Pratt 2, Holstein 1, Gay 2, Auger 2, Hestland (bow), How-the gathering which will be in the nature of a family excursion.

Alameda have already chartered their own car and are figuring on another one, while Berkeley will have a car and Oakland three or four. The committee of arrangements is headed by "Pat" Leslie, a young man, leader party, sailing,

Truckee citizens.

The excursionists will leave the South-

LATEST NEWS FROM OUTSIDE TOWNS

HERE'S $300,000
IN IDLE MONEY

The Banks of Richmond Can Handle Only Portion of Big Fund.

RICHMOND, Feb. 14.—City Treasurer Louis Bonzagni is losing much sleep these nights. The cause of his worry is that he does not know what to do with the $300,000 the city is about to acquire from the recent sale of the first installment of tunnel and harbor bonds.

The money will be tendered to the municipality within a month and it is up to Bonzagni to safely keep the coin.

The banks of the city and, in fact, all of the financial institutions of the county of Contra Costa have been communicated with with a view to encourage the application for a portion of the fund.

A peculiar situation confronting the city treasurer is the fact that under the law the banks can only handle as much of the city's funds as will equal ten percent of their capital stock.

The First National Bank of Richmond is capitalized for $100,000, which will entitle it to only $10,000 of the bond money; the Mechanics' Bank is capitalized for $50,000, and this institution will only be entitled to $5,000.

The Bank of Richmond, whose capital stock is $200,000, will raise it to $100,000 before the bond money is paid into the city coffers, will be able to secure $10,000.

In all, only $25,000 of the city's funds, in addition, the banks will be obliged to purchase bonds to deposit with the city, in a sum equivalent to the amount of municipal funds in their hands.

This the banks do not care to do in view of the fact that the money will not be held by them long enough to justify the expense, especially as they would be required to pay the city two per cent per annum interest on the municipal deposits.

The money will soon be available and work will commence on the municipal highway and tunnel through the hills to the bay, where the wharf will be constructed. Later in the summer the work on the inner harbor will also be begun.

AGED MAN TURNS
BURGLAR FOR FOOD

Is Seen by Child at Window; Escapes Police on the Trail.

MELROSE, Feb. 14.—Little George Williams, the 7-year-old daughter of Mrs. W. C. Williams, 1421 Forty-seventh avenue, returned home from school yesterday afternoon to find a strange old man seated at the stove, eating and drinking everything that had been prepared for the Williams family.

The old man, who was roughly dressed and appeared to be of the train class, was just as startled as the girl and after peering out at the back door of the house, climbed a back fence and moved along the railroad track at full speed, carrying with him a loaf of bread and other provisions.

The child was too terrified to give the alarm, and it was not until the return of Mrs. Williams, about an hour after, that it was discovered the house had been entered during her absence and the provisions of the side table had been consumed.

OAKLAND ACREAGE

I have the very choicest piece of acreage in Oakland. It is in the heart of the most active building section of the city. Three electric car lines run to the property; macadamized streets, electricity, gas, water, etc., on three sides.

This tract, consisting of 35 acres, is the commanding property of Melrose Heights, Orland Heights, Brookdale Terrace and Central Terrace, and is one mile nearer the business center than Havens Court. The adjoining building restriction is $3500, while many buildings are being erected at twice that amount.

As a sure, safe, sound and profitable investment, there is nothing in the city that will equal it. I can demonstrate and prove to you conclusively that this property will readily sell in lots for $450,000, and can show you where by investing $40,000 cash you can make a net profit of $225,000, or 560% on your net cash investment.
